

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

August 2, 2009

Dear Friends,

It's hard to imagine how last weekend's celebration of the feast of St. James could have been any better. A few degrees drop in temperature might have been nice but it doesn't seem right for Seattleites to complain about sunshine!

The picnic was fabulous and I want to thank the hard-working team who made it happen. Special thanks go to Trent Mummery, Stephen Pace, and Larry Brouse, along with a wonderful group of volunteers too numerous to mention who did the set-ups, the cooking, the serving, the staffing, and the clean-up. There were many highlights but for me but watching the faces of dozens of eager and excited kids assaulting the piñata scores high on my list. It was a great event in every way. The best picnic ever!

We apologize for the fact that the Seattle policemen who normally do the traffic control and directing outside the Cabrini Garage are not able to be with us this weekend. The annual Seafair celebrations demand their presence elsewhere. They will be back with us next weekend.

Summer is supposed to be a 'down' time but not around here. For us it's a good time to catch up on some major maintenance items. If you saw heavy equipment in the Cathedral last week, it's because we re-lamped every one of the light fixtures in the Cathedral. As you might expect, this is an expensive item (about $10,000!). Happily it only has to be done every-other-year. We are also spending $20,000 for a new furnace in Cathedral Place and several thousand dollars to replace many of the office and classroom windows in that building with thermo-pane glass. In the long run, this work will involve considerable cost-savings because of reduced energy consumption. Needless to say, I am more than grateful for your generosity that makes it possible for us to maintain our wonderful buildings.

I'm away in Spain this weekend for the wedding of a parishioner. Tough duty, but someone has to do it!

Father Michael G. Ryan

SOLANUS CASEY CENTER, our parish's drop-in center for homeless and low-income people, is looking for volunteers to help in two areas:

Year for Priests

August 2, 2009

On August 4, we observe the memorial of St. John Vianney (1786-1859). Pope Benedict XVI has declared this 150th anniversary of the saint's death to be the YEAR FOR PRIESTS (June 19, 2009 – June 19, 2010). He has also named St. John Vianney—long the patron saint of parish priests—the patron saint of all priests. This is a special time to pray for our priests and for vocations to the priesthood.

“May the Year for Priests lead all priests to identify totally with the Crucified and Risen Jesus so that, in imitation of St John the Baptist, they may be prepared to ‘decrease’ that Christ may increase and that, in following the example of the Curé d'Ars, they feel constantly and profoundly the responsibility of their mission, which is the sign and presence of God's infinite mercy. Let us entrust to Our Lady, Mother of the Church, the Year for Priests which has just begun and all the priests of the world.” (Pope Benedict XVI)

ST. JOHN VIANNEY: THE PATRON SAINT OF PRIESTS

St. Jean-Marie Vianney (1786-1859) was not the most likely candidate to become the patron saint of priests: in fact, he was almost expelled from seminary because of his inability to master Latin! But thanks in large part to the care and guidance of his own parish priest, Father Balley, he was ordained a priest in August, 1815. Two years later he was appointed curé, or pastor, of the tiny village of Ars in southern France.

The story is told that in the heavy fog the saint lost his way to Ars and stopped to ask a boy for directions. The boy pointed out the right road, and Jean-Marie told him: “You have shown me the way to Ars. Now I will show you the way to Heaven.” And that is exactly what he did. By his incessant prayer, fasting, pleading, preaching, visiting, he was an irresistible force for good in the tired and depressed little village. Within a few years, Ars was a different place, and word began to spread about the holy “Curé of Ars.” Pilgrims came to hear him preach and especially to go to confession to him. By the end of his life, the Curé spent up to eighteen hours a day in the confessional; people waited in line for as long as three days to confess to him.

His frankness was proverbial. One man passed through the village with his dog, just to see what the fuss was about. He was converted instantly when the saint, passing by, saw him and said: “Sir, it is greatly to be wished that your soul were as beautiful as your dog!” Hundreds of similar stories are told of the intense impact of his transparent simplicity and holiness. St. John Vianney was canonized by Pius XI in 1925.

WORDS OF THE SAINT

On Priesthood:

- The priest will not understand the greatness of his office till he is in Heaven. If he understood it on earth, he would die, not of fear, but of love.
- The priest is not a priest for himself; he does not give himself absolution; he does not administer the Sacraments to himself. He is not for himself, he is for you.

On Prayer:

- To approach God, one should go straight to him, like a ball from a cannon.
- Prayer is the inner bath of love into which the soul plunges itself.

A PRAYER FOR PRIESTS

Lord Jesus Christ, eternal Priest,
we thank you for our priests,
who minister among us in your name.
Bless them and keep them,
that they may be wise and gentle servants of your Gospel,
filled with compassion
for the poor, the sick, and the sinner.
In this Year for Priests,
may many generous men hear the call to priestly ministry in the Church.
And may all your holy people
work together to build the earthly city,
with hearts set on that Kingdom
where you live and reign
with the Father and the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
