Praying at Home

June 2010

On Prayer

There is no compulsion to pray: we can freely decide to pray or to neglect prayer. For prayer is not easy. It is not the speaking of many words, or the hypnotic spell of the recited formula; it is the raising of the heart and mind to God in constantly renewed acts of love. We must go forward to grapple with prayer, as Jacob wrestled with the angel. We must lift high our lamp of Faith that it may show us what prayer is, and what are its power and dignity. Into the darkness we must whisper our prayer: Lord, teach us how to pray.

Karl Rahner, SJ

On the Eucharist

On the 6th of this month, we will celebrate the solemnity of Corpus Christi—the body and blood of Christ.

Union with Christ is also union with all those to whom he gives himself. I cannot possess Christ just for myself; I can belong to him only in union with all those who have become, or who will become, his own. Communion draws me out of myself towards him, and thus also towards unity with all Christians. We become “one body”, completely joined in a single existence... A Eucharist which does not pass over into the concrete practice of love is intrinsically fragmented.

Pope Benedict XVI, Deus Caritas Est

Since you make up the body of Christ and are his members, your mystery rests on the table of the Lord; you receive your own mystery. You answer “Amen” to the reality of what you are; your reply gives your consent to it. For on hearing the words “The Body of Christ,” you reply, “Amen.” Be in fact a member of Christ’s body for your affirmation “Amen” to ring true... Be what you see; receive what you are.

St. Augustine

A Meal Prayer from Ghana, Africa

O Lord, the meal
is steaming before us
and it smells good!
The water is clear and fresh.
We are happy and satisfied.
But now we must think
of our brothers and sisters all over the world who have nothing to eat and only a little to drink.
Please, please give all of them
your food and your drink.
That is the most important thing!
But also give them what they need every day,
to go through this life.
Now, and in all times,
give food and drink to our hungry brothers and sisters.
Amen.

Holy Father’s Prayer Intentions for June

GENERAL INTENTION:

That every national and international institution may strive to guarantee respect for human life from conception to natural death.

MISSION INTENTION:

That the Churches in Asia, a “little flock” among non-Christian populations, may communicate the Gospel and give joyful witness to their adherence to Christ.

Aspirations for June

Short prayers to memorize and pray throughout the day. These simple prayers are also appropriate ones to pray as you pass in front of the tabernacle.

My Lord and my God!

O Sacrament most holy, O Sacrament divine!

All praise and all thanksgiving be every moment thine!

Night Prayer

May the Lord support us all the day long, till the shades lengthen and the evening comes,
and the busy world is hushed,
and the fever of life is over,
and our work is done.

Then in his mercy,
may he give us a safe lodging and a holy rest,
and peace at the last.

Father, we ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Venerable John Henry Newman

Mary, Mother of the Eucharist

This short prayer has been set to music by many great composers, including Mozart, Franck, and Fauré.

Hail, true Body, born of the Virgin Mary, truly having suffered and been offered
on the cross for all, be a foretaste for us in the hour of our death.

St. Louis de Montfort (1673-1716), was a great advocate of devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary. This is one of his best-known prayers.

O Jesus, living in Mary,
Come and live in your servants,
In the spirit of your holiness,
In the fullness of your might,
In the truth of your virtues,
In the perfection of your ways,
In the communion of your mysteries.
Subdue every hostile power,
In your spirit, for the glory of the Father. Amen.

Corpus Christi Procession

with the Blessed Sacrament on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Sunday, June 6, 2010
10:00am

As Catholics have done on this day for nearly a millennium, we take to the streets with procession, prayer, bagpipes, and song to celebrate and show forth to our entire First Hill community our faith in Christ's abiding presence in our midst in the holy Eucharist.

"We bring Christ, present under the sign of bread, onto the streets of our city. We entrust these streets, these homes, our daily life, to his goodness. May our streets be streets of Jesus! May our houses be homes for him and with him! May our life of every day be penetrated by his presence!

"With this gesture, let us place under his eyes the sufferings of the sick, the solitude of young people and the elderly, temptations, fears - our entire life. The procession represents an immense and public blessing for our city: Christ is, in person, the divine Blessing for the world. May the ray of his blessing extend to us all!

"In the Corpus Domini procession, we walk with the Risen One on his journey to meet the entire world."

—Pope Benedict XVI
