

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

May 22, 2011

Dear Friends,

Back in 1981, my predecessor as pastor, Father William Gallagher, had the wisdom and enlightened good sense to hire Dr. James Savage as the Cathedral's music director. His decision turned out to be a profoundly important one. We are still experiencing its effects today.

When Jim arrived here, the Cathedral was, in many respects, a far different place than it is today. It looked very different (on the inside!), and the parish that gathered here was very different: only about a third of the size it now is and made up mostly of people living in the neighborhood. Children were hard to find. One of the only constants throughout those 30 years has been Jim Savage himself!

Thirty years is a long time. It's nearly a third of the Cathedral's history. It's also time enough to create a legacy, and Jim has surely done that. Thanks to his leadership, the music program of St. James Cathedral has come to be recognized throughout this country as both superior and superb. And when I say that I include the entire music program, all of it world class: the organists, the Cathedral Choir of St. James, the Women of St. James Schola, the Cathedral Cantorei, the Cathedral Chamber Orchestra, and the Cathedral's three children's choirs (Schola Cantorum, St. Gregory Choir, St. Cecilia Singers). When Jim arrived on the scene, there was an organist and a rather small choir -- a music program at a fairly low ebb even though there had been some high points in its history.

But it's not just the music program that has changed over these years. The Cathedral building itself has changed and Jim played an important role in all those changes, serving as my trusted advisor on nearly every artistic and liturgical judgment that was made during the great renovation and restoration of 1994. In the Catholic Church, liturgy and music and the arts are not separate entities: they are intricately and inseparably woven together in the great fabric that is Catholic worship. With his considerable gifts, Jim was very instrumental in making sure that each of those essential elements played its proper part in that great undertaking.

Thirty years is a long time, but the mere passage of time is no guarantee of progress, growth, or success. In Jim's case, however, 30 years has meant the growth of something truly wonderful and the blossoming of something beyond beautiful. Sunday after Sunday when we come together, each of us is a part of that beautiful something as we sing together the praises of our God in our magnificent Cathedral. And as we do -- and especially so on Jim's thirtieth anniversary weekend -- I hope we will stop to give thanks to God for sending Jim Savage to St. James, thanks, too, to Jim for using his amazing gifts to help St. James become the wonderful praying, singing, and serving community it is!

Father Michael G. Ryan

P.S. If you'd like to write a note to Jim, stop by coffee hours after Masses this morning. There will be a table there where you can write a note of appreciation.

WELCOME! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. Thanks, in part, to the generosity of visitors like you, we are able to celebrate the Church's liturgy here in a fitting and beautiful way. We are also able to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the central district of our city.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR are from Ned Flohr and family, in loving memory of Nancy Flohr on the third anniversary of her death. Floral offerings are a wonderful way to remember a deceased loved one, celebrate an anniversary, or give thanks for a prayer that has been answered. If you have been inspired to give thanks with flowers, please contact Peggy Behnken at 206-654-4650 or pbehnken@stjames-cathedral.org.

THE CATHEDRAL ESPRESSO CART is up and running! Your friendly Cathedral baristas will be serving espresso drinks after the 10:00 Mass. In honor of Mary and all the St. James mothers, the proceeds from the espresso cart will go to the Babysitting Program for the month of May.

APPEAR AND INSPIRE May 21 and 22, 8:00pm
Seattle Pro Musica, a Cathedral Resident Ensemble, Karen P. Thomas, conductor. Britten's evocative paean to the patron saint of music—the Hymn to St. Cecilia—provides the inspiration for this concert. Also, Joseph Rheinberger's romantic Mass in Eb for Double Choir, Ralph Vaughan Williams' Five Mystical Songs, and John Rutter's dazzling Hymn to the Creator of Light. Information, 206-781-2766 or www.seattlepromusica.org

FAREWELL, BISHOP TYSON Pope Benedict XVI has appointed our own auxiliary bishop, Joseph Tyson, as Bishop of Yakima. All are invited to pray with Bishop Tyson and give thanks for his ministry among us at a special Mass of thanksgiving on Friday, May 27 at 5:30pm.

PRAYER WITH MUSIC FROM TAIZÉ Each Friday at 6:30pm in the Cathedral, all are invited to join in an ecumenical service of readings, silence, candlelight, and the music of the ecumenical community of Taizé in France. This simple, reflective prayer is the perfect way to end a busy week. Please note: on Friday, May 27, the prayer will take place in the Pastoral Outreach Center, Holy Names Room.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of Holy Spirit in Kent, and Sacred Heart in Bellingham, Tacoma, and Lacey.

ST. JAMES IS A PLACE FOR CHILDREN We encourage all of our parishioners who attend Mass with young children, and we welcome them into our midst. Many families find that sitting in the front rows, where the view is unobstructed, allows children to participate more fully. Others are more comfortable sitting at the ends of the aisles, so that they can easily step into the west vestibule or the Cathedral Chapel, if their child needs a quiet place away from the assembly. We have provided a sound system in these areas so you can continue to participate in Mass. We appreciate your effort to be with us and to include your child in our worship. For those who wish, babysitting is available in the Mother Cabrini Room at the Pastoral Outreach Center during the 10:00 am and 12 Noon Masses.

SHARE SAFE HAVEN SHELTER We are pleased to welcome back our friends from the SHARE Safe Haven Shelter, who will once again be staying in Cathedral Hall each night this summer. Safe Haven is a self-governing group of approximately 25 homeless men and women whom we have had the privilege of hosting during previous summers when our Winter Shelter program is not in operation, and we are happy to have them with us again this year. Homelessness does not take a "summer vacation" and neither should our care and concern for our homeless brothers and sisters. Please hold the members of the Safe Haven Shelter in your prayers this summer.

DO YOU HAVE A CHILD WHO IS: at least 7 years old seeking Baptism in the Catholic Church? Or, at least 7 years old baptized in another Christian tradition seeking full communion in the Catholic Church? Or, at least 9 years old, baptized Catholic and needs to prepare for First Holy Communion? Please call for information about RCIA Adapted for Older Children, designed to teach children who all within these guidelines about our Catholic faith and to prepare them for the Sacraments of Initiation. Information and registration, TerryAnn Bowen tbowen@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-2018.

CHOIR CAMP St. James Cathedral's Youth Music Program is now registering students in grades 4-8 (treble voices) for our annual Choir Camp, August 15-21. This exciting week-long camp provides children training in music fundamentals, Orff instruments, and proper singing techniques; and fosters their active participation in the liturgy through music. For audition and general information, Music Office, 206-382-4874, or musicooffice@stjames-cathedral.org.

SUMMER FILM FESTIVAL Join us Tuesday, June 14 for the return of this popular summer series in Cathedral Place, 2nd floor at 7:00pm. Our first film, co-sponsored by our ESL program, is entitled Innocent Voices—it is an inspirational coming-of-age story of screenwriter Oscar Torres, who, as an 11 year -old boy, was caught up in the El Salvador's civil war. His saga is harrowing and intensely moving. The movie is principally about the effects of war on children (in Spanish with subtitles—rated R). Popcorn and lemonade will be provided and you are welcome to bring your favorite movie treats. Information, Helen Oesterle 206-382-4514 or hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org.

ARE YOU A REGISTERED PARISHIONER AT ST. JAMES? Many who attend St. James regularly and consider the Cathedral their parish have never officially registered. We strongly encourage you to register. Registered parishioners receive important mailings from the Cathedral (including offering envelopes!), are regular recipients of the Cathedral's quarterly journal In Your Midst, are able to celebrate their wedding at the Cathedral, and their children may attend any of the five Catholic Rainbow Schools at parishioner rates. In addition, if you are a registered parishioner and use envelopes, or are on the direct debit program, we will mail you a quarterly report of your contributions to the parish. Registration cards can be found in the vestibule. If you are not sure whether or not you're registered, call the Parish Office, 206-622-3559.

NEED PASTORAL CARE? The Cathedral provides a variety of such ministries. Whether you are sick or homebound and in need of communion, whether you would like a CD of Sunday's Mass, or if you need the sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, we can help! Information John Simpson, Pastoral Care Minister, 206-274-3173, jsimpson@stjames-cathedral.org.
