Never weather-beaten sail

Parry

Never weather-beaten sail more willing bent to shore,
 Never tired pilgrim's limbs affected slumber more,
 Thank my wearied sprite now longs to fly out of my troubled breast:
 O come quickly, sweetest Lord, and take my soul to rest!
 Ever blooming are the joys of Heaven's high Paradise,
 Cold age deafs not there our ears nor vapour dims our eye:
 Glory there the sun outshines; whose beams the Blessed only see:
 O come quickly, glorious Lord, and raise my sprite to Thee!

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU An experienced longshoreman wound up unemployed and homeless for nearly a year after his licenses and credentials expired when he could not afford to pay renewal fees. Your Cathedral Vincentians learned about this only after he started to get work again, found housing but mistakenly thought the agency that housed him would pay his rent for awhile. When we visited, he was deeply anxious, upset and feeling ashamed about getting an eviction notice and needing to ask for help. With your support, we eased his anxiety by paying rent and assured him there was nothing to be ashamed about as most people hit a rough patch sometime in life and, with his skills and experience, he has much to look forward to. Thank you for making such help and our visits possible!

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we pray for the parishes of St. Charles Borromeo in Tacoma and Burlington, and St. Leo in Tacoma.

Dear Friends,

I want to give you a quick update on the CALLED TO SERVE AS CHRIST Campaign, which we launched two months ago. Good news! We have already raised 82% of our goal of $3.2 million, and I have every confidence that with your help, we'll raise the remaining $620,000. A huge thank you to those of you who have already made a commitment to the campaign. For those who have not yet done so, I hope you will consider becoming a part of this important effort in support of the retired sisters and priests of the archdiocese. We intend to follow up with all those we have not yet heard from early in the New Year.

Your incredible generosity once again moves me very deeply. It is such a testimonial to your faith and to your love for the Church. Thank you with all my heart!

Father Ryan

Building the Beloved Community RACISM & BEYOND

Join us to learn what you can do!

Many people of faith are concerned about racism in America today.

- ✓ Where do we start? What can we do?
- ✓ What is “white privilege” and its role in society today?
- ✓ How can we respond to the systemic nature of racism in our politics, economy, public education and criminal justice system?

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL PARISH

We are the cathedral for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle and its Archbishop, The Most Reverend J. Peter Sartain. We are also a parish church for a vibrant faith community with a long history that reaches back to Seattle's early days.

We are an inner-city parish with an outreach to many who live on the edge of poverty and loneliness. We are a diverse community that welcomes, accepts, and celebrates the differences we all bring. We exist in the heart of the city, yet sometimes our parishioners come from considerable distances to worship here.

St. James Cathedral is a crossroads where ideas and challenges both old and new are explored in the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Our cathedral is also the center for many cultural and ecumenical events which both reflect and help to shape the fabric of a vital metropolitan community.

Above all, St. James Cathedral is a community of prayer.
