(All other Masses)

to the tune LAUDA ANIMA

Glory be to God in heaven,
Songs of joy and peace we bring;
Thankful hearts and voices raising,
To creation's Lord we sing:
Lord, we thank you, Lord, we bless you,
Glory be to God our king.

Lamb of God who on your shoulders
Bore the load of this world's sin;
Only Son of God the Father,
You have brought us peace within:
Lord, have mercy, Christ, have mercy,
Now your glorious reign begin.

You, O Son of God, are holy,
You we praise with one accord;
None in heav'n or earth is like you,
Only you are Christ the Lord,
With the Father, and the Spirit,
Ever worshiped and adored.

We welcome our visitors

St. James Cathedral, Seattle

July 17, 2011

WELCOME, SUMMER VISITORS!

St. James is glad to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week this summer, a page in the bulletin will offer some historic and artistic highlights of St. James Cathedral. This week, we highlight the Cathedral's Ceremonial Bronze Doors.

In addition, each week a drawing for a special Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence today.

St. James is the Cathedral Church for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle. It is also a parish church for a large and vital community. Noted for its beautiful liturgies and its extensive outreach to the poor, the Cathedral also serves the city of Seattle as an important gathering place, a crossroads for learning, and a center for the arts.

Built in 1907, St. James Cathedral is an impressive Italian Renaissance-style building whose twin towers soar to a height of 167 feet. St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, the first American citizen to be canonized, worshiped in the Cathedral in its early years. In 1994, a nationally acclaimed restoration and renovation completely renewed the beauty of this beloved Seattle landmark, transforming it into a dynamic space for the celebration of the Church's liturgy as well as for ecumenical, cultural, and civic events.

Artistic highlights of St. James include magnificent ceremonial bronze doors and tabernacle by German artist Ulrich Henn; an award-winning Shrine to the Blessed Virgin Mary; and a large collection of stained glass by renowned artists Charles Connick and Hans Gottfried von Stockhausen. The Cathedral Chapel is home to a remarkable 15th-century Renaissance altarpiece by Neri di Bicci.

St. James Cathedral is also a vibrant parish community of more than 2,400 households, coming from more than 180 ZIP codes around the entire Puget Sound region.

CEREMONIAL BRONZE DOORS

"The Ceremonial Bronze Doors at the Cathedral's west entrance were installed in 1999, and were opened for the first time to mark the beginning of the Great Jubilee Year 2000. The doors are the work of German sculptor Ulrich Henn, who also created the Cathedral's tabernacle.

The doors tell the story of salvation history in terms of God's relationship with his people. The story begins with Adam and Eve being expelled from the garden of Eden, at the bottom of the left-hand door, and continues with Noah, offering sacrifice after the flood, and with Moses leading the chosen people through the Red Sea. The right-hand door features New Testament stories, beginning with Jesus' baptism in the Jordan, and continuing with stories of Jesus' healing and teaching, the betrayal by Judas, and the carrying of the cross. Above the doors, in the tympanum, is a vision of the Heavenly City. Just as an angel pointed the way out of Eden, an angel points the way into Paradise, to Christ, the triumphant Lamb of God.

The flanking bronze doors and doorstops, featuring images of saints and animals, were also crafted by Ulrich Henn, and will reward a closer look!
