ENTRANCE

It came upon the midnight clear

CAROL

It came upon the midnight clear,
that glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth
to touch their harps of gold.
“Peace on the earth, good will to all,
from heaven’s all-gracious King.”
The world in solemn stillness lay to hear the angels sing.

Yet with the woes of sin and strife
the world has suffered long;
Beneath the heavenly hymn have rolled two thousand years of wrong.
And warring humankind hears not the tidings which they bring;
O hush your noise and cease your strife,
and hear the angels sing!

For lo! the days are hastening on,
by prophets seen of old,
When with the ever-circling years
shall come the time foretold,
When peace shall over all the earth
its ancient splendors fling,
And all the world give back the song which now the angels sing.

We need St. James parishioners to be companions with some of our new inquirers to help welcome them to our community. The time commitment is reasonable – two Wednesday evening sessions a month. The Year of Faith

FAITH, PRAYER, ACTION

BECOMING PEACEMAKERS

January 2013

The Year of Faith is about deepening our faith, living our faith, and sharing our faith with others. Each month during the coming year, a special page in the bulletin will offer ideas for living your faith outside of Sunday Mass—prayers to be said at home as well as suggested action steps.

Blessed are the peacemakers

...the many different efforts at peacemaking which abound in our world testify to mankind's innate vocation to peace. In every person the desire for peace is an essential aspiration which coincides in a certain way with the desire for a full, happy and successful human life. In other words, the desire for peace corresponds to a fundamental moral principle, namely, the duty and right to an integral social and communitarian development, which is part of God's plan for mankind. Man is made for the peace which is God's gift.

From "Blessed Are the Peacemakers"

Pope Benedict's Message for January 1, 2013, World Day of Peace

A Prayer for Life

In the United States of America, January 22, the anniversary of the Supreme Court decision Roe v. Wade, is observed as a Day of Penance.

God our loving Father,
grant wisdom to those who govern us,
compassion and courage
to those who work to defend human life,
and safety and care to every human being.
For you alone who formed us in our mother's womb,
and who call us home to heaven,
are God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Prayer from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

Year of Faith Action Steps

FOR FAMILIES:

Take time to discuss what New Year's resolutions you wish to make as a family. Include a peacemaking resolution. Write them down and post them on the fridge or other prominent spot. Select a family prayer for peace and pray it during the coming year.

FOR YOUTH AND YOUNG ADULTS:

Share your faith by building peace within yourself, within your family and in your relationships with friends. Build peace by affirming and encouraging those around you rather than criticizing them, or giving in to gossip or ridicule.

FOR EVERYONE:

Take time to pray and reflect on the Beatitudes found in Matthew 5:1-12. Begin building peace by forgiving yourself. Extend forgiveness to those who have hurt you. Reflect on ways you hold grudges, criticize yourself or others, seek out or spread gossip. Disarm the heart and work on bringing peace to all areas of your life.

Action steps from JustFaith Ministries

A Prayer for the Church

January 18-25 is the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. This is a prayer for the unity of the Church by William Laud (1573-1645).

Gracious Father,
we pray to you for your holy Catholic Church.
Fill it with your truth.
Keep it in your peace.
Where it is corrupt, reform it.
Where it is in error, correct it.
Where it is right, defend it.
Where it is in want, provide for it.
Where it is divided, reunite it;
for the sake of your Son,
our Savior Jesus Christ. Amen.

Peace Prayer of St. Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace;
where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy.
O Divine Master,
Grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood, as to understand;
to be loved, as to love;
For it is in giving that we receive,
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Blessing our homes

It is an ancient custom to bless the home at the beginning of the New Year. Here is a simple prayer of blessing.

Blessed are you, God our Father,
for your gift of this house as our dwelling place.
Grant that all who live here
may receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit.
By our works of charity, may we show what grace your blessing brings,
so that all who come here
will find the spirit of love and peace which you alone can give.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Adapted from the Book of Blessings

The Treasure of Faith

During the Year of Faith, we're encouraged to reacquire ourselves with the Catechism and the documents of the Second Vatican Council. This month, explore the Church's teaching on peace.

Peace is the work of justice and the effect of charity.

Catechism 2304

Every one of us needs a change of heart. We must set our gaze upon the whole world, and look to those tasks we can all perform together in order to bring about the betterment of our race.
