ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

April 27, 2008

Dear Friends,

It seems altogether fitting that we mark Annual Catholic Appeal Sunday in the wake of the visit to our country of Pope Benedict XVI. I don't know about you, but I experienced, during those memorable days, a strong feeling of pride in being Catholic. The Holy Father brought a message to us that was both timeless and timely. He challenged us to probe our faith at its deepest level and not to separate our faith from the rest of our lives. He also challenged us to renew our relationship with Jesus Christ, "the way, the truth, and the life," and to find in that relationship new and compelling reasons for hope. He reminded us that our faith is a call to freedom – a freedom not to be confused with license but the true freedom of the children of God which is found only in self-surrender to a loving God.

From the White House where he was a respected head of state, to the Vatican Embassy where he was pastor to the hurting; from the United Nations where he spoke to the world, to St. Patrick's Cathedral where he spoke to his own; from Ground Zero where he prayed in silence, to Yankee Stadium where he reminded America of its true greatness – in each of those places and every place in between, Pope Benedict called us, in humble, soft-spoken yet persuasive ways, to our true greatness, owning his own frailty in the process and giving us courage to accept our own. All in all, it was an extraordinary six days. A proud time to be Catholic!

Today, as we are asked to support the work of our church beyond the confines of St. James Cathedral parish, we will do well to reflect a little on the privilege that is ours to be part of a church that is truly Catholic. The Church of the Archdiocese of Seattle, through our Archbishop, is our visible link to the universal Church. It is not only our duty to support that Church in every way we can, but it is our privilege. To contribute monetarily to the Church through the Archbishop's Annual Catholic Appeal is to step up and claim with pride what it means to be Catholic.

In his homily at the Mass in Yankee Stadium, Pope Benedict looked to our past as a Church in this country and reminded us of what we have accomplished. Here are a few of his words:

We think of the strong faith which built up the network of churches, educational, healthcare and social institutions which have long been the hallmark of the Church in this land. We think also of those countless fathers and mothers who passed on the faith to their children, the steady ministry of the many priests who devoted their lives to the care of souls, and the incalculable contribution made by so many men and women religious, who not only taught generations of children how to read and write, but also inspired in them a lifelong desire to know God, to love him and to serve him. How many "spiritual sacrifices pleasing to God" have been offered up in these two centuries!

Dear friends, as you consider what your gift to the Annual Catholic Appeal will be this year, I know you will do so with an awareness that what you do and what you give is part of a great history: a generous carrying on of what Catholic people in this country of ours have always done to bring the gospel to life and make Jesus Christ known and loved.

We are learning to befriend them, and through and with them, to befriend Jesus” (Jean Vanier). Information Helen Oesterle, 382-4514, hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org.

What is the Annual Catholic Appeal all about?

The Annual Catholic Appeal is about giving back to the rich and wonderful presence of individuals and families from a wide array of countries, cultures, ages and abilities that have made our Church and community a diverse and blessed reflection of the glory of God. With your annual support, we help the 63 ministries and services throughout Western Washington.

How does the Annual Appeal differ from Parish Stewardship Giving?

The Annual Catholic Appeal is a once-a-year formal request of your support for essential Archdiocesan ministries and services in Western Washington such as:

- Adult and Youth Faith Formation
- Deacon and Seminarian Formation
- Hospital and Criminal Justice Ministry
- Retired Priests' Medical
- Priests' Pension
- Catholic Youth Organization
- Catholic Schools
- Catholic Community Services

Your Parish Stewardship Giving helps support the very important ongoing annual needs of your individual parish.

How does my Parish benefit?

Each parish is assigned a goal for the Annual Catholic Appeal, and any money received and exceeding the goal is returned to your parish to use for special projects or as needed. Some of last year's projects included:

- New church roof
- Stained glass window
- Painting of church and rectory
- Kitchen remodel
- Improvements to sound system in church
- Grotto statue
- Insulated windows for church
- Clean and paint bell tower

How much should I give to the Annual Appeal?

Consider giving 1% of your tithing to support your Catholic Church of Western Washington. As a community of believers, we are encouraged to give a total of 10% of our income distributed to our local parish, our Catholic Archdiocese in Western Washington, and our community. The average gift to the Annual Catholic Appeal last year was $267.00. How does your gift compare?
