PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All BOW

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All STAND UPRIGHT

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

WELCOME, SUMMER VISITORS! St. James Cathedral is proud to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week a drawing for a special Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence in our midst today. Be sure to stop by the Cathedral Bookstore after Mass for a wide selection of Cathedral souvenirs as well as books and gifts.

FOR YOUR SAFETY At each of the weekend Masses a Seattle police officer or a private security guard is present on the Cathedral campus.

ON THE COVER St. James Cathedral is depicted on a utility box at 9th and Madison, part of a First Hill beautification project. The artist is Nathan Watkins.

CHAPEL CLOSED The Cathedral Chapel is closed this month for plaster work and painting. We apologize for the inconvenience.

CAMINO SEATTLE ROSARY WALK AFTER 10AM MASS

Join us for a walk through First Hill and Central District today, Sunday, July 16 at 11:15am. Starting from St. James Cathedral's front steps, our walk will take us to different images of Mary at Seattle University, Immaculate Conception, and St. James Cathedral, and we'll pray a decade of the rosary at each stop. The walk will be just under three miles and will last about an hour and a half. We will depart promptly at 11:15am.

TREASURES OF THE CAMINO As we prepare to celebrate the Feast of St. James on July 23, a special exhibit in the Reconciliation Chapel celebrates the Camino to Santiago de Compostela—the great shrine of St. James in Spain. Parishioners who have walked the Camino have shared some photos and treasures from along the way. The Reconciliation Chapel is located off the west vestibule of the Cathedral and will be open before and after Mass so you can view the exhibit.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU In June, we visited a woman suffering from serious medical conditions and undergoing radiation. She and a friend were splitting the cost of a rental house, but the owner sold the house, so they had to move out and the friend moved away. The woman had just been approved to receive monthly Social Security Disability Insurance, but the payments would not begin until July. She was able to move into a small apartment but had no money to pay June rent. Another charity agreed to pay part but only if someone else would help, too. From your donations, we paid the gap on her June rent. Now she can focus on her health and not fear homelessness – thank you! Information, Bob Clifford, 206-718-4158 or bobclifford53@gmail.com.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we pray for the parishes of St. Bridget in Seattle, St. Olaf in Poulsbo, and St. Ann in Seattle, Tacoma, and Forks.

CAMINO SEATTLE WALKS THIS WEEK It's already the last week of Camino Seattle! Cathedral pilgrims can collect their prayer and walking stamps each week at coffee hour or at the Cathedral Bookstore. In addition, you can get a bonus stamp by participating in a hosted walk or other group event. Walks this coming week include:

- Sunday, July 16 following 10am Mass—Rosary walk on the feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel
- Monday, July 17, 6:45pm—Sunset Hill Park, meet at corner of NW 75th & 34th Ave. A gorgeous walk taking in Shilshole Bay Marina.
- Tuesday, July 18—Camino presentation by Father Scott Connolly
- Thursday, July 20, 8:45am—Seward Park Loop. Meet at picnic area near the swings.
- Friday, July 21, 11:00am—Bellevue Botanical Gardens (great for families)
- Saturday, July 22, 8:00am—Lincoln Park
- Saturday, July 22, 10:30am—Arboretum Walk including Japanese Tea Garden
- Saturday, July 22, 3:00pm—Walk from St. Mark's to St. James with the American Pilgrims on the Camino, arriving in time for 5:30pm Mass
- Sunday, July 23, 6:15am—Walk from Our Lady of Guadalupe, West Seattle, to St. James in time for 10:00am Mass

For details on these walks, visit www.stjames-cathedral.org/camino.

A WEEKLY TIP ON CARING FOR OUR COMMON HOME

Talk with fellow parishioners about the possibility of sharing rides to Mass and other parish events as a way of reducing your carbon footprint. You can take this a step further by organizing occasional walk-to-church weekends. This would be a blessed opportunity to extend the Camino experience!

GATES FOUNDATION TOUR On Wednesday, July 26 at 11:00am, St. James Social Outreach and Advocacy is sponsoring a tour of the Gates Foundation campus in South Lake Union to learn about their work locally and globally. If you are interested, RSVP to outreach@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4515. Limited transportation will be available from the Cathedral.

SUMMER ORGAN RECITAL SERIES: RENÉE ANNE LOUPRETTE Friday, July 28 at 7:00pm. Hailed by the New York Times as "splendid," Ms. Louprette will play a program of Bach, Marais, Isoir, Boulanger, Ibert, and Vierne. She is University Organist/Coordinator of the Organ Department at Mason Gross School of the Arts, Rutgers University. Information and passes, www.stjames-cathedral.org/music.

ARE YOU A REGISTERED PARISHIONER AT ST. JAMES? Many who attend St. James regularly and consider the Cathedral their parish have never officially registered. We strongly encourage you to register. Registered parishioners receive important mailings from the Cathedral (including offering envelopes!). Registration cards can be found in the vestibule and at the welcome table in Cathedral Hall. You can also register online, www.stjames-cathedral.org.

OPPORTUNITIES TO SERVE

Do you long to get more involved in the Cathedral parish and find ways to meet fellow parishioners and form community here? The best way to do that is by getting involved in one of our many ministries! Here are some current opportunities.

MUFFIN MAKER NEEDED FOR SUNDAY

HOSPITALITY We are in need of a volunteer to help make muffins on the second Sunday of each month from about 7am-10am. Information, Hunt Hoffman, hhoffman@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4235.

INTENTIONAL SERVICE AND WELCOMING

SPIRITUAL COMMUNITY Jesuit Volunteer EnCorps (JV EnCorps) is now accepting applications for 2017-18! JV EnCorps, a program of JVC Northwest, facilitates transformative opportunities for service, community and spiritual formation for adults 50 and older who are committed to social and ecological justice. During their ten months of part-time volunteer service, participants meet regularly in community to deepen their spirituality and explore the values of community, simple living and social & ecological justice. Join us at Coffee Hour on August 6 after the 8:00 and 10:00 Masses to learn more about JV EnCorps. Priority application deadline: August 15. Information, JVESeattle@jvcnorthwest.org or www.jvencorps.org.

MINISTRY OF PRESENCE IN THE CATHEDRAL Each weekday in the Cathedral, a volunteer sits at a desk in the northeast corner of the Cathedral near the Mary Shrine, available to answer questions, accept prayer requests, and greet visitors who stop in between 1:00pm-4:00pm. It's a quiet time to pray, read, and be present to those who come to the Cathedral, often people in need. If you'd like to spend one afternoon a month in the Cathedral, we'd love to have you be a part of this ministry.

Information, Maria Laughlin, 206-382-4284 or mlaughlin@stjames-cathedral.org.

HUNTHAUSEN AUCTION ON AUGUST 28

The Cathedral's annual event benefiting the Cathedral Kitchen is coming up on August 28. Would you consider donating an item for the auction? We are especially looking for bottles of wine and restaurant gift cards. Other welcome items: hotel gift certificates, Seahawks, Mariners, or Sounders tickets, sports collectibles, theater/event tickets. You are also most welcome to join us for golf or dinner! Information, Margaret Lynch, 206-382-4288 or mlynch@stjames-cathedral.org.

BABYSITTING is available for children up to four years of age on Sundays during the 10:00am and Noon Masses, in the Mother Cabrini Room on the first floor of the Pastoral Outreach Center. Information, Suzanne Lee, 206-654-4640.

The Dance of Christian Life

An evening retreat on the Camino de Santiago

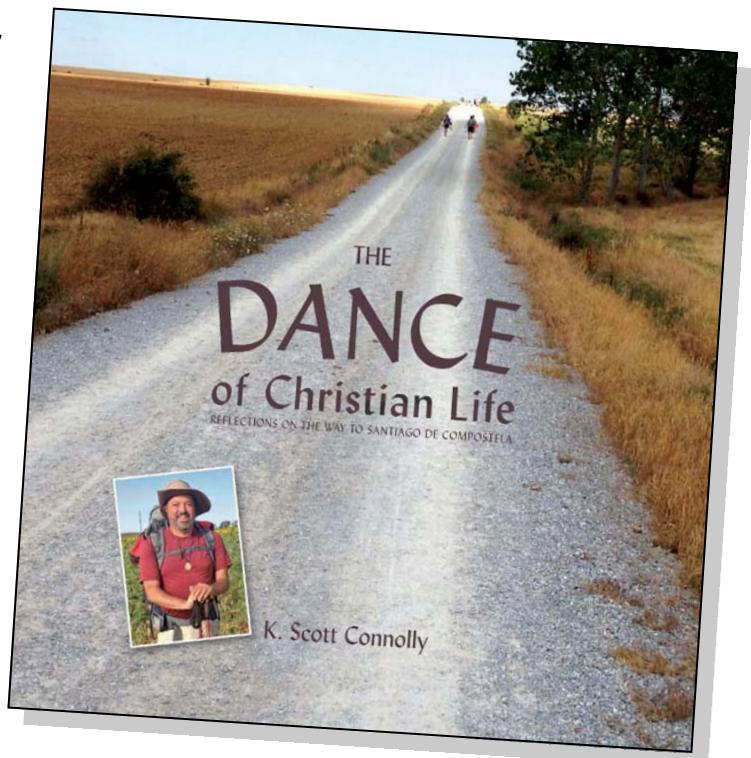

Tuesday, July 18, 2017 | 6:30-8:00pm
Holy Names Room, Pastoral Outreach Center

FATHER SCOTT CONNOLLY, a priest of the Archdiocese of Seattle and Pastor of Assumption Parish in Bellingham, offers a presentation on the Camino to Santiago and the shrine of St. James the Greater.

Father Scott did a sabbatical in 2012 and was blessed to have walked the Camino to Santiago in Spain. During that time, he kept a journal and took thousands of photos. Father Scott has written a book about his pilgrim experience, The Dance of Christian Life.

He has shared his reflections with a number of parish communities and will be here to share some reflections and some wonderful stories with us. He will also leave time for questions.

Please come and walk with him again as he explores the Way of St. James. All are welcome!

SUMMER FILM SERIES

UNDER THE BRIDGE

THE CRIMINALIZATION OF HOMELESSNESS

Tuesday, July 25, 7pm SHARP in the Pastoral Outreach Center (907 Columbia St.)

Sponsored by the St. James Housing Advocacy Committee

(Unrated) One summer in Indianapolis. A tent city under a bridge. A man named Maurice. The criminalization of homelessness in the United States. The unofficial "mayor" of the Davidson Street camp, Maurice is an older, dreadlocked Black man who has dropped out of "normal" society to minister to the homeless. His camp under a railroad track becomes a real community, supported by church volunteers, until police and bulldozers close in to shut it down.

There will be a brief discussion the film. The Cathedral will provide popcorn and beverages. Consider bringing food to share, potluck style. We encourage local, organic, sustainably-grown, home-made food or offerings with minimal packaging.

Choir Camp 2017

Magnificat!
My Soul Magnifies the Lord

Get ready for Schola Cantorum Choir Camp at St. James Cathedral! For five days, campers sing, laugh, and play in a beautiful and welcoming environment. Choristers grades 3-8 will learn a variety of music spanning the Church's history, from ancient to modern. Campers share their music through a mid-week mini-concert at a nearby retirement community and a Friday Cathedral concert; and on Sunday, they provide the music for the 10:00am Mass.

Each day begins with the sung Morning Praise service and continues with rehearsal, fun activities on the Cathedral grounds, and lessons on topics in the life of the Church. Over the course of the week, senior choristers have an opportunity to take over and get a taste of being a leader of the liturgy.

Monday, August 7 – Friday, August 11 ✽ 9:00am-3:00pm
Sunday, August 13 ✽ 9:00am-11:15am

Registration is open to girls and boys who will be entering grades 3-8 in September 2017. A short audition with Youth Music director Stacey Sunde is required to assess the ability to match pitch and reproduce rhythmic patterns, and admittance is dependent upon a successful audition.

Tuition is $100 for the week; need-based scholarships are available. Campers bring a bag lunch, two snacks are provided each day. Each camper receives a free t-shirt!

To schedule an audition, contact Stacey Sunde at (206) 941-9450 or email:

Are you a landlord, or do you know someone who is?

You can provide much needed support to immigrant survivors of forced labor, who are working hard to rebuild their lives.

Human beings are themselves considered consumer goods to be used and then discarded. We have created a 'throwaway' culture which is now spreading.

Pope Francis

How you can help

If you are a landlord or know someone who is, immigrants who are trafficking survivors could use your help! Many are right here in Western Washington awaiting their visas and work permits. Having a fair and understanding landlord helps them to build safety and independence. We are part of a network of organizations supporting trafficking survivors, committed to working with landlords and other community members to ensure their success.

"My wife and I were forced to do agricultural and construction work to pay off our debt. Our small children were abused and forced to do household chores. We were all forced to live in the garage and were threatened with deportation." (Washington Anti-Trafficking Response Network).

This is just one example of how human trafficking affects survivors and families. Once a survivor flees, safe and affordable housing is a huge barrier to starting a new life. Without proper documentation, little to no rental or credit history, and lack of verifiable income, it is extremely difficult to find a landlord who will rent to them. While most survivors and their families were victims of forced labor, there are other forms of trafficking as well.

You can make a difference by helping us to find understanding landlords that will support them as they rebuild their lives.

Find out more about human trafficking by visiting the Washington Anti-Trafficking Response Network at <http://www.warn-trafficking.org>

ARCHDIOCESE

SOUTH SEATTLE DEANERY PASTORAL PLANNING PROCESS

Archbishop Sartain's Response to our proposed Pastoral Plan

After more than two years of consultation and conversation in the spirit of prayer, the 17 parishes in the South Seattle Deanery submitted a Pastoral Plan to Archbishop Sartain on December 15, 2016. The proposed plan envisioned how our faith communities will best support missionary discipleship both in the present and in the future. Below is a summary of his comments at a recent gathering of Pastoral Leaders in the Deanery:*

- I'm grateful for the many hours of dialogue undertaken by the deanery and the comprehensive inclusion of many leaders and parishioners in the process. Truly a collaborative effort. You have done well! I know the participants appreciated the help of facilitator Dan Celucci of Catholic Leadership Institute.
- I especially appreciated the concept of "Missionary Disciples" woven throughout the plan. In fact, taking the same charge from Pope Francis is what led our recent reorganization of core areas in chancery structure: we are now organized to focus on these three prime goals: Evangelization, Discipleship, and Formation.
- The original charge of reducing the number of priests serving the deanery by three was not only met but surpassed to identifying five possible reductions. As I have said from the beginning of our planning process, it is my hope to be able to assign a priest pastor to every community, but the priest placement board will review annually the number of priests available and if necessary implement leadership models such as you recommend.
- Very helpful to have identified sub-deaneries and parish partnerships, and while the leadership models recommended may be implemented over years as needed, implementing the sharing of staff and programs can begin immediately.
- I agree with the recommendation to shift Vietnamese Martyrs Parish to the South King Deanery but would like the parish to continue participating in the Rainbow School coalition.
- In order to reduce stress on pastors and other priests serving the deanery, it would also be important to begin to reduce the number of Masses in the deanery. This of course needs to be a deliberate and consultative process with the parishioners, parish leadership, and the Archdiocese.
- One recommendation asks for the "creation of parish viability benchmarks that can help a community objectively assess if they have the financial and human resources necessary to remain independent." I think that is a very good idea. It will be important to consider these factors when reviewing the viability of the parish partnerships. As regards parish partnerships, I ask that you review the proposed parish pairings in light of the financial condition of each parish, including financial capacity, indebtedness, and other factors, to be sure that the pairings are realistic and workable.

- The recommendations in your report must be placed in the context of the needs of the whole Archdiocese. As the planning results of other deaneries emerge in the coming months and year, it will be critical that we look at the whole to ensure that the comprehensive needs of the entire Archdiocese are being addressed. It is important to avoid a “congregationalist” approach, in which a particular parish community considers only itself and not the needs and realities of other parishes in its deanery and throughout the Archdiocese. The Catholic approach is “universal,” not “congregationalist.”
- I personally remain committed to the formation of lay ministers and parish leaders, and to creative models of parish administration as needed. As an archdiocese, we will continue to emphasize the promotion of vocations to the priesthood and religious life. My entire priestly ministry has been in a landscape of collaboration between clergy and lay ministers, and our focus will continue to be so. It is not a matter of “either/or” but “both/and.” Quality priestly vocations from our local parishes are there, and thanks be to God they continue to come forth. A critical aspect of our discipleship is to intentionally encourage them.
- Finally, I thank you for the very hard work represented in your plan, and I am pleased with it. We’ll continue moving forward with the ideas I have suggested today, and even more progress will come about.

Next Steps

The South Seattle Deanery leadership, in collaboration with archdiocesan services, will continue to meet to follow up on the Archbishop’s recommendations and begin implementing the Deanery’s Pastoral Plan with consultation and collaboration with parishioners and staff.

The parishes in the South Seattle Deanery include Christ Our Hope, Holy Family, Holy Rosary, Immaculate Conception, Our Lady of Guadalupe, Our Lady of Mount Virgin, St. Edward, St. George, St. James Cathedral, St. Joseph, St. Mary, St. Patrick, St. Paul, St. Peter, St. Therese, Vietnamese Martyrs (Tukwila), and St. John Vianney (Vashon Island).*

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL AND PAGLIACCI PIZZA PRESENT THE 21ST ANNUAL
ARCHBISHOP RAYMOND G. HUNTHAUSEN
Charity Golf Tournament & Benefit Dinner

Since 1997, the Hunthausen Charity Golf Tournament and Benefit Dinner has raised hundreds of thousands of dollars to support the neediest of our community. This year the event will be held at the Glendale Country Club in Bellevue.

And the need is greater than ever before. This important event makes possible our Cathedral Kitchen, serving 150+ hot, nutritious meals every weeknight, all year round, to homeless and low-income men, women, and children in the downtown area. The tournament also supports other important Cathedral outreach ministries, including our Solanus Casey Center, Immigrant Assistance Program, and Mental Health Ministry.

Every dollar given to the Kitchen makes a huge difference. Look at it this way:

Serve one guest for a month.....	$75
Keep the kitchen open one day	$665
Keep the kitchen open a week	$3,325

On behalf of Archbishop Hunthausen and the countless people who are helped through the programs of St. James Cathedral, thank you for your generous support of the Archbishop Hunthausen Charity Golf Tournament and Benefit Dinner.
