ALL

Glory to God in the highest,
We praise you, we bless you,
we glorify you, we give you thanks
Lord God, heavenly King,
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
you take away the sins of the world,
you take away the sins of the world,
You are seated at the right hand of the Father,
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
with the Holy Spirit,

and on earth peace to peo- ple of good will.
we a- dore you,
for your great glory.
O God, almighty- y Fa- ther.
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
have mer- cy on us;
re- ceive our prayer;
have mer- cy on us.
you alone are the Most High Je- sus Christ,
in the glory of God the Father, A - - - men.

DISMISSAL OF THE CATECHUMENS AND CANDIDATES (10:00)

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All BOW
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All STAND UPRIGHT

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

SANTO NIÑO CELEBRATION Today at the Noon Mass, we will celebrate the Santo Niño—the Holy Child Jesus. All are invited to the fiesta following Mass in Cathedral Place Hall.

HELP SYRIAN REFUGEES Stop by the coffee cart during coffee hour after Mass. The coffee cart will be collecting donations that will be distributed to local Syrian refugees. Needed items include clothing and blankets, hygiene products, and school supplies. Cash donations are used for rent assistance. Information, Chris Koehler, ckoehler@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4511.

THE SEARCH FOR ENOUGH: A MEN'S DAY OF REFLECTION Saturday, January 28, 9am – 3pm in the Pastoral Outreach Center. As the new year begins, give yourself the gift of time to sift through what's most important in life. Presenter Mike Schut will help you explore the themes of scarcity and abundance in your life commitments and relationships, and in a modern economy. Sponsored by the Ignatian Spirituality Center. COST: $45 includes breakfast, snacks and lunch. Scholarships available. Information/registration, www.ignatiancenter.org

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU In 2016, the SVdP Helpline (206-767-6449) took more than 24,000 phone calls from individuals and families in King County who needed help paying for life's necessities, like rent, electricity, food, clothes and beds. Amazingly, SVdP (a worldwide organization) would not exist but for the fact that one day 400 years ago – in 1617 – St Vincent de Paul begged his parish congregation to help a single poor family in great need of food and spiritual comfort. The parish answered Vincent's call, and he realized that many more people could be helped if properly organized to work together for charity. When you donate to SVdP in the special collection each month, you help our neighbors in need and you keep Vincent's vision of charity alive – thank you! Information, Bob Clifford, 206-718-4158 or bobclifford53@gmail.com

FOR YOUR SAFETY At each of the weekend Masses a Seattle police officer or a private security guard is present on the Cathedral campus.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of Holy Redeemer in Vancouver and Sacred Heart in LaConner and Winlock.

ORGANIST KEN COWAN IN CONCERT Friday, January 20 at 7:30 pm. Associate Professor and Chair of Organ Studies at Rice University, Ken Cowan is one of America's most sought-after organists. Particularly known for his performances of transcriptions, Mr. Cowan dazzles audiences through his immaculate technique and dramatic interpretations of orchestral music at the organ. In this, his first performance at St. James, he will present a variety of repertoire, including his own arrangements of popular symphonic movements. Information and passes, www.stjames-cathedral.org/music.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN BECOMING CATHOLIC? If you are an adult who has never been baptized, an adult who has been baptized in another Christian tradition or a Catholic who has been baptized, but not received First Eucharist or Confirmation, you are invited to participate in the RCIA, a process of initiation into the Catholic Church. You can learn more by going to www.stjames-cathedral.org/RCIA. Information, Kathleen McCabe, kmccabe@stjames-cathedral.org.

RESTORATIVE JUSTICE FOR YOUTH You can have a profound impact in the lives of teenagers charged with an offense in Juvenile Court. St. James Cathedral's Juvenile Justice Commission invites you to learn about the traditional Court process, and about a new opportunity for youth in King County to resolve criminal conflicts using Peacemaking Circles, rather than the traditional Court system. To learn how you can help, please join us, as well as speakers from both the Courts and the Peacemaking Circles, for one of three introductory information sessions in the Mother Cabrini Room on the ground floor of the Pastoral Outreach Center: Thursday, February 9, 7pm; Sunday, February 12, 1pm; and Wednesday, February 15, 2:30pm. Information, Curtis Leighton, 264-2082, cleighton@stjames-cathedral.org; or Patrick Barredo, 382-4515 or pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org.

END HUMAN TRAFFICKING Did you know that Pope Francis and eleven other faith leaders including Muslim, Jewish, Orthodox and other leaders have made a united commitment to help eradicate slavery world wide by 2020 (Source: www.IPJC.org)? Did you know that sex trafficking and labor trafficking occurs in the Greater Seattle area? Does this seem to you to be modern day slavery? Learn more about Human Trafficking and what you can do to help at www.IPJC.org, or by calling 206.223.1138. The website contains a resource library, downloadable resources, a listing of anti-trafficking organizations, and a legislative action center.

SABBATH OF DREAMS: THE HARD WON AND THE YET TO BE All are invited to an Interfaith Shabbat Service at Temple De Hirsch Sinai on the evening of Inauguration Day. It will be an opportunity to gather with people of all faiths to rededicate ourselves to our shared values as we move forward together. Friday, January 20, 2017. Refreshments, 5:00pm; Service, 6:00pm. Temple De Hirsch Sinai is located at 1441 16th Ave, Seattle.

YOUTH MINISTRY

YOUTH NIGHT TONIGHT Wrap up the Christmas season with an evening of fun activities, prayer and community-building to start your week off right. Sunday night from 6:30-8:30pm in the Pastoral Outreach Center.

NICARAGUA MISSION TRIP The first of six prep sessions for our July service trip to NPH Nicaragua will be Monday, January 23, 2016 at 7:00pm in the Pastoral Outreach Center. If you've expressed interest or already registered for the trip, it's important that you be there. Questions or to RSVP, contact Curtis.

QUESTIONS? Curtis Leighton, 206-264-2082, cleighton@stjames-cathedral.org

YOUNG ADULT MINISTRY

For Catholics in their 20s and 30s

SPIRITUALITY OF PAUL BOOK GROUP We hear from Paul of Tarsus almost every Sunday of the year, but how much do we really know about this persecutor-turned-proselytizer? Together we'll learn about this complex and ever-controversial missionary and talk about what we can gain from his letters today. We'll be using Professor Thomas H. Tobin's accessible The Spirituality of Paul as a jumping off point. Our first discussion will be on Monday January 30 at 7:00pm. Books may be purchased on sliding scale of $10-$20. Contact Curtis to get your copy today!

THIRD SUNDAY SOCIAL Join us tonight, January 15, for our Third Sunday Social after the 5:30 Mass in the Rectory Parlors. All young adults are welcome!

Information, Curtis Leighton, 206-264-2082, cleighton@stjames-cathedral.org

CATHOLIC 101

The last Wednesday of each month is devoted to a refresher course in the basics of Catholic life and teaching

On Wednesday, January 25, at 7:30pm (note start time!) in the Holy Names Room, join us for LITURGY OF THE HOURS 101. ANDREW CASAD, Director of Liturgy for the Archdiocese of Seattle, gives an overview of the "Prayer of the Church"—and an opportunity to pray together.

TROUBLED MARRIAGE? HOPE IS A PHONE CALL AWAY Are you struggling in your marriage? You are not alone. Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vī) has helped tens of thousands of couples worldwide, and can help you too. For confidential information or to register for our upcoming program beginning February 10-12, 2017 call 206-706-2608 or visit our website at www.HelpOurMarriage.com.

YOUTH MUSIC PROGRAM The spring semester of the St. James Youth Music Program has begun! Do you have a child who loves to sing or wants to learn? Choral singing is not just about music - it builds social skills, community, and cooperation in addition to making music to the glory of God. The Schola Cantorum choir, for girls and boys ages 8-13, provides the music at the noon "First Sunday Youth Celebrations," the 5:30 Christmas Eve Vigil, and various archepiscopal liturgies. Jubilate!, the Cathedral's ensemble for young women of high school age, sings regularly at the noon Mass on the third Sunday of the month as well as various special liturgies and occasional Vespers. This year, Jubilate! will sing the Stabat Mater by G.B. Pergolesi, with orchestra at the Good Friday Tre Ore service. New choristers are requested to complete a short interview to assess musical aptitude – to schedule an interview, please call Youth Music Program director, Ms. Stacey Sunde at 206-941-9450. There is an $80 tuition fee assessed for each child per semester, and financial aid scholarships are available. Registration is ongoing throughout the semester – for more information or to register online, visit www.stjames-cathedral.org/music/youthmusic.

PLEASE SUPPORT THE WINTER SHELTER Our inventory on the following items is low. If you can help out, please bring these travel-sized items to Sunday Coffee Hour or to the Parish Office. Thank you! Toothbrushes, Kleenex, men's deodorant, men's razors, pillowcases.

CONFRONTING PORNOGRAPHY St. James has an anonymous support group for those who want to overcome pornography use in their lives. Meetings are at each Tuesday from 7:30-8:30 pm in the Pastoral Outreach Center. For more information or questions, Curtis Leighton, cleighton@stjames-cathedral.org.

MINDFUL ALTERNATIVE SUPPORT GROUP meets at St. James monthly on the last Saturday. The next meeting is January 25 at 3pm. Family and friends of individuals with mental illness are invited to share ideas, resources and experiences. Information, Terry Proctor, mindfulalternative@gmail.com or visit www.mindfulalternative.org.

BAPTISM OF INFANTS & YOUNG CHILDREN (under the age of 7) is celebrated monthly at one of the weekend Masses. To prepare for this most important sacrament, parents and godparents participate in a series of classes to update their understanding of baptism, to reflect on their responsibility to guide their children in the practice of the faith, and to learn about the many ways our parish supports families. Please allow at least two months for preparation. Information, Julianna Castro, jcastro@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-619-0816.

Sacrificial Sunday Giving 2017

"We, though many, are one body in Christ." Our giving makes possible so many of the good things that go on here at the Cathedral parish, week in and week out. Our giving allows us, in a very real way, to reach out to one another and to the poorest in our midst with love and compassion.

RESULTS THROUGH JANUARY 9

Total pledges received.....	740
Average pledge amount.....	$45/week
Participation goal	40%
% participation.....	31%
Total goal	$2,200,000
% of goal reached	82%

If you haven't already made your pledge for 2017, please do so TODAY!

We still have a long way to go to meet our financial and participation goals.

You can also make your pledge online at www.stjames-cathedral.org

The 103rd World Day of Migrants and Refugees: “Minor migrants, vulnerable and voiceless.”

Sunday, January 15, 2017

A statement released by the Pontifical Council for the Pastoral Care of Migrants and Itinerant Peoples said that with this year's theme, "Minor migrants, vulnerable and voiceless," Pope Francis "wants to focus attention on the smallest of the small." The statement noted that children, who often arrive unaccompanied in their destination countries, "are unable to make their own voices heard" and "easily become victims of grave violations of human rights." The Council noted that "migration is a worldwide phenomenon," and that all continents are "touched by this reality." It is necessary, the Council said, to guarantee that migrants, along with their families, "enjoy the full recognition of all their rights" in the countries in which they arrive. The rights of children are a cause for special concern, as among migrants, women and children are particularly vulnerable. Children especially are often "invisible" because they lack documents or arrive in new countries without accompaniment. The theme of this year's day is precisely an effort to draw attention to the needs of those who are most vulnerable.

You can make a difference in the lives of refugees:

- Stop by the Espresso Cart after Mass today to drop off your donated items for local refugees. Cash donations will be used for rental assistance.
- Sign up for monthly email updates by sending an email to ckoehler@stjames-cathedral.org
- Join our new "Adopt a refugee family" to help out with rides, English practice, donated household items, etc. Find out more by contacting Chris Koehler at 206-382-4511 or ckoehler@stjames-cathedral.org
- Donate blankets for refugees on the Syrian/Jordan border. The weather is turning very cold and it has begun to snow in some areas. SCM Medical Missions has a goal to collect 10,000 blankets that will be shipped on January 29. Drop blankets off at SCM's office at 3806 Whitman Ave. N, Seattle, WA 98103. <https://salaamculturalmuseum.wordpress.com>
- Support the work of CRS around the world helping poor and vulnerable people overcome emergencies, earn a living through agriculture, and access affordable health care. Visit their website at www.crs.org

Grief Support Group

Wednesdays, January 25—March 1, 2017
7:00pm-8:30pm, Mother Mary Rose Room
Pastoral Outreach Center, St. James Cathedral

Are you grieving the death of someone close to you?
Grief and loss can have a significant impact on our lives long after the death of the person we love.

The grieving process has no timeline and is unique to each individual, but meeting with others who are going through a similar experience can provide support and help us cope.

You are invited to join a new 6-week grief support group facilitated by St. James Cathedral Staff
Nancy Granger, Suzanne Lee, and Rosanne Michaels

*Information and registration, Suzanne Lee, 206-654-4640

Welcome Back

A CATHEDRAL PROGRAM FOR NON-PRACTICING CATHOLICS

Come back to the Lord with all your heart!

God is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger, rich in faithful love. Joel 2

Have you drifted away from your Catholic faith? Are you disillusioned by what you hear about your Church? Do you desire a life filled with faith?

St. James Cathedral offers a 10-week “Welcome Back” program for Catholics out of touch with a Church that once may have been home. It’s a safe place to ask questions, learn about changes in the Church, and begin to experience a small community of faith. If you desire, we’ll help you return to the sacraments, and to becoming an active part of this faith community.

The winter program begins Monday, January 23, 2017, and continues Mondays through March. Sessions are held 7:00 – 9:00 pm in Cathedral Place, 803 Terry Avenue.

For more information, without any obligation, contact Rosanne Michaels at 206-654-4658 or rmichaels@stjames-cathedral.org.

Seeking Refuge: Forced to Flee

A REFUGEE CAMP SIMULATION

Saturday, January 21, 2017 | 10:00am-12:30pm
Cathedral Hall, St. James Cathedral

Join us for a unique, eye-opening experience on what it is like to enter a refugee camp. While no simulation can give you the full sense of the refugee experience, this simulation will help you to better understand the situation faced by refugees around the world. The simulation will be followed by a panel discussion with former refugees.

"Migrants trust that they will encounter acceptance, solidarity, and help, that they will meet people who will sympathize with the distress and tragedy experienced by others, recognize the values and resources the latter had to offer, and are open to sharing humanly and materially with the needy and disadvantaged." Pope Francis, Message for World Day of Migrants and Refugees, October 12, 2012.

Free. Space is limited and registration is required.

The Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick

A communal celebration of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will take place at St. James Cathedral on Saturday, February 11, 2017, the Memorial of Our Lady of Lourdes, at a special 10:30am Mass. Father Ryan will preside. All are welcome to attend the Mass.

What is the sacrament of Anointing of the Sick?

The sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick is one of the seven sacraments of the Catholic Church. Like the sacrament of reconciliation (confession), it is a sacrament of healing. Our understanding of this sacrament has changed with time. In the early Church it was seen as a sacrament of healing, but later it came to be known as "Extreme Unction" – literally, "last anointing" – and was not administered until death was imminent. With the reforms of the Second Vatican Council, the Church has returned to the more ancient practice with regard to this sacrament.

Who can receive this sacrament?

Catholics, both children and adults, who are seriously ill, facing surgery, or experiencing the weakness that comes with old age should seek this sacrament. Those with serious, chronic mental or physical illness may also receive the anointing of the sick.

What happens during the Rite of Anointing?

The Rite of Anointing will be celebrated in the context of a special Mass on Saturday, February 11 at 10:30am.

After the homily, the Liturgy of Anointing begins. The priest leads a litany in which all pray for the healing and forgiveness of the sick person, as well as for doctors, nurses, and caregivers. Then, in silence, the priest lays his hands on the head of the sick person, an ancient gesture of prayer that is used in connection with many of the sacraments, especially the Sacrament of Reconciliation and Holy Orders.

After the laying on of hands, each sick person is anointed with the Oil of the Sick (pure olive oil, blessed each year by the Archbishop at the Chrism Mass). The sick person is anointed on the forehead and then on the hands, and simple words accompany the anointing: "Through this holy anointing may the Lord in his love and mercy help you with the grace of the Holy Spirit. May the Lord who frees you from sin save you and raise you up." A concluding prayer follows, and if the sacrament takes place in the context of the Mass, the Liturgy of the Eucharist continues as usual.
