HOMILY

EPIPHANY PROCLAMATION

In keeping with an ancient custom in the Church, the date of Easter and other moveable feasts of the liturgical year are announced in traditional chant.

CREED CHANTED ON ONE TONE

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All BOW

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All STAND UPRIGHT

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

Here is the little door,
lift up the latch, oh lift!
We need not wander more,
but enter with our gift;
Our gift of finest gold.
Gold that was never bought or sold;
Myrrh to be strewn about His bed;
Incense in clouds about His head;
All for the child that stirs not in His sleep,
But holy slumber hold with ass and sheep.

G. K. Chesterton

Low-gluten hosts are distributed at the credence table, near the presider's chair.

When you return to your place, please kneel or be seated.

WELCOME, VISITORS! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. For more information about the parish, to register, or to ask a question, visit our Sunday Help Desk at Coffee Hour. A Cathedral staff person will be on hand to assist you. Be sure to stop by the Cathedral Bookstore after Mass for a wide selection of Cathedral souvenirs as well as Catholic books and gifts.

FOR YOUR SAFETY At each of the weekend Masses a Seattle police officer is present on the Cathedral campus.

ON THE COVER The Three Kings. North transept stained-glass window. Charles Connick, artist.

CATHEDRAL ESPRESSO is up and running after the 10:00 Mass in Cathedral Hall. All proceeds benefit the ministries of St. James. Proceeds for January will go to the Mental Health and Wellness Ministry.

WYATT SMITH D.M.A. GRADUATE ORGAN RECITAL On Friday, January 12 at 7:00pm, organist Wyatt Smith will present his fourth graduate recital in fulfillment of a Doctor of Musical Arts degree from the University of Washington. The program will feature Healey Willan's "Introduction, Passacaglia and Fugue," Jean Langlais's "Arabesque for the Flutes," and the complete Sixth Organ Symphony, Op. 59 by Louis Vierne. This performance is free and open to the public.

SAFE TOUCH CLASS Next Sunday, January 14, Children's Faith Formation will offer one sexual abuse prevention course to children and youth enrolled in Sunday morning classes. In our efforts to protect our vulnerable population, the Archdiocese of Seattle has integrated abuse prevention material into our faith formation and youth ministry curriculum in the context of teaching our children and youth about our Catholic faith. To help you understand what your child will be offered, we ask you to visit: <http://www.seattlearchdiocese.org/SEP/faithformation.aspx>. This will provide you with "Parent/ Guardian Resources," to inform you about the curriculum being used while also making available the actual lessons. As the guardian, you have the right to opt your child/youth out of this lesson. You may do so notifying Brenda Bellamy (Children's Faith Formation) bbellamy@stjames-cathedral.org or Curtis Leighton (Youth Ministry) cleighton@stjames-cathedral.org. This announcement is to notify you of our new initiative to provide abuse prevention curriculum to our youth in Faith Formation and Youth Ministry. Unless you would like to opt your youth out of this lesson you are not required to do anything.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we pray for the parishes of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in Bothell, St. Mary in Castle Rock and Centralia, and St. Mary Mission in Coupeville.

MARRIAGE ENRICHMENT Please join us as we kick off the 2018 season of marriage enrichment on Saturday, January 20, 2018, at 6:30pm in the Holy Names Room, Pastoral Outreach Center. Married couples are invited to join us for a Dinner Date Series: Food for the Souls of Married Couples. Babysitting is provided. The evening will be facilitated by Christina and Dave Buchholz and we'll spend time exploring the themes that future evenings will explore. To register, contact Kathleen McCabe, kmccabe@stjames-cathedral.org or Suzanne Lee, slee@stjames-cathedral.org.

JUBILATE YOUNG WOMEN'S ENSEMBLE WITH JOSEPH ADAM, CATHEDRAL ORGANIST On Friday, January 26 at 8:00pm, Jubilate Young Women's Ensemble, conducted by Stacey Sunde, is joined by cathedral organists Joseph Adam and Paul Thornock in a program of chant-based works, including Dupré's Fifteen Pieces, Op. 18, movements from Couperin's Messe des Couvents, and other works by Parisian composers. Information and passes, www.stjames-cathedral.org/music.

FIRST ANNUAL PEACEMAKING SUMMIT Friday, January 26, 2018, 6:00pm-9:00pm at Seattle University Student Center, Room 160. A celebration and acknowledgment of the power of partnerships relating to the Peacemaking Circles Movement in King County. Dan Satterberg, King County Prosecuting Attorney, will be the keynote speaker. Register in advance at Peacemaking-Summit.eventbrite.com. Information, Patrick Barredo, 206-382-4515 or pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org.

COUNT US IN – FRIDAY, JANUARY 26 All Home, a Seattle/King County agency that focuses on homelessness, is now accepting volunteers for Count Us In 2018, the annual count of people experiencing homelessness. Volunteers will be asked to conduct a visual count of individuals experiencing homelessness across King County. Teams are comprised of community volunteers and expert guides (individuals currently/Previously experiencing homelessness). Volunteers are expected to have a cell phone, and to walk approximately 2-3 miles if necessary. To volunteer, go to <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/KingCountyPIT2018>. Information, Patrick Barredo, 206-382-4515 or pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org.

OUR FAITH IN ACTION ORIENTATION & RETREAT On Saturday, January 27, 10am-2:30pm at Our Lady of Guadalupe church, the parishes of South Seattle and Catholic Community Services will offer a retreat to help form you in Catholic Social Teaching and Advocacy. The day will be offered in both English and Spanish. Register at outreach@stjames-cathedral.org. And be sure to register at www.ipjc.org for Catholic Advocacy Day, Wednesday, February 21 in Olympia. Information, Patrick Barredo, 206-382-4515 or pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org.

ROSARY All are welcome to join with a group of parishioners who pray the rosary together in the Chapel, Monday through Saturday at 7:40am.

YOUTH MINISTRY

YOUTH NIGHT TONIGHT Join us for an evening of fun activities, prayer and community-building to kick off the new year! Sunday night from 6:30-8:30pm in the Pastoral Outreach Center.

Information, Curtis Leighton, 206-264-2082, cleighton@stjames-cathedral.org

SURVIVING SUICIDE Sunday, January 28, 1:30pm, Pastoral Outreach Center. If you have lost a loved one to suicide – you are a survivor of suicide. A survivor can be a spouse or partner, child, sibling, friend. Common feelings include shock, anger, guilt, depression, confusion and shame. Laura Takacs MPH, LICSW - clinical director of Virginia Mason's Separation and Loss Services, will be addressing the grief cycle associated with traumatic loss. She will also talk about a therapeutic model known as Restorative Retelling groups – with a healing focus on restoring resilience by honoring the memory of your loved one and sharing common experiences in a supportive environment. Information, Nancy Granger 206-382-4269, ngranger@stjames-cathedral.org.

REPORT FROM ST VINCENT DE PAUL Your SVdP donations made it possible for our Cathedral Vincentians to do 190 home visits during October, November & December and help 315 low (or no) income residents of St James parish who struggle to pay for life's necessities, such as rent, electricity, beds, food, clothes and basic hygiene products. Your generosity is great, but we continue to be asked for more help than we can provide, especially as rents keep rising. That means we and those we serve are deeply grateful for every dollar you share with SVdP – thank you! Information, Bob Clifford, 206-718-4158 or bobclifford53@gmail.com.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN BECOMING CATHOLIC? If you are an adult who has never been baptized, an adult who has been baptized in another Christian tradition or a Catholic who has been baptized, but not received First Eucharist or Confirmation, you are invited to participate in the RCIA, a process of initiation into the Catholic Church. You can learn more by visiting the RCIA website. Information, Kathleen McCabe, 206-382-2018 or kmccabe@stjames-cathedral.org.

Sacred Steps

SACRAMENTAL CELEBRATIONS AT ST. JAMES

CONGRATULATIONS AND GOD'S BLESSINGS to the following children, baptized in the Cathedral on Sunday, December 31: Lou Gerard Gjonej, Dorothea Changning Wright Lo, and Eleanor Marie Shield.

REST IN PEACE Please pray for the repose of the soul of Suzanne Lescantz.

A WEEKLY TIP ON CARING FOR OUR COMMON HOME

Instead of buying bottled water, buy reusable water bottles and fill them from the tap at home, work or school. You can also carry empty water bottles (even metal ones) through airport security and fill them once you have passed security. This will help remove non-biodegradable plastic from the waste stream and help keep it out of our waterways.

ADULT CONFIRMATION Are you a baptized Catholic who has not yet been confirmed? Adult preparation classes for this important sacrament begin Wednesday, February 21, and continue through early May. Information, Rosanne Michaels, 206-654-4658, or rmichaels@stjames-cathedral.org.

SKYLINE OPEN HOUSE: SAVE THE DATE Skyline, a 62+ retirement community across the street from St. James, will be hosting an exclusive Open House following Noon Mass on Sunday, February 11 from 1:30 – 3pm. One and two bedroom independent living apartment homes will be available to tour. Come enjoy a beverage and appetizer as you learn about the benefits and amenities of Skyline. Skyline is a nonprofit continuing care retirement community that offers independent and assisted living, as well as memory support and 24-hour skilled nursing. RSVP to (206) 405-4100 or email fjahan@skylineseattle.org. Free valet parking is available. Valet park at Skyline, walk across the street to noon Mass, and after Mass come to the Open House.

Pax Christi at St James

Celebrating Martin Luther King, Jr.

January 7: Excerpts from MLK's prophetic "Beyond Vietnam" speech will be read aloud in the Holy Names Room at 1:15pm (after Noon Mass). This speech addresses matters of race, injustice, and war that are as important today as they were fifty years ago. Come listen to honor the life of MLK and be inspired by his words.

Vow of Nonviolence

Mass with Archbishop Sartain

January 13: Nonviolence: A Style of Politics for Peace is the theme chosen by Pope Francis for his yearly message for the 2017 World Day of Peace. We invite you to join Pax Christi members in making a one-year Vow of Nonviolence on Saturday, January 13 at the 5:30pm Mass.

Join Pax Christi

Second Sunday of each month at 1:15 in the Mother Mary Rose Room.

Opportunities to Serve

Do you long to get more involved in the Cathedral parish and find ways to meet fellow parishioners and form community here? The best way to do that is by getting involved in one of our many ministries! Here are some current opportunities.

WINTER SHELTER NEEDS Your donations help the homeless men who stay in Cathedral Hall on the weekends. Items urgently needed include: spray deodorant; cough drops; small tissue packets; razors, toothbrushes. Items can be dropped off at Sunday Coffee Hour or in the Parish Office. Thank you!

RE-GIFT TO SUPPORT YOUR COMMUNITY Spread the joy of giving even further when you re-gift presents to Cabrini Ministry Training for use at its fundraising dinner on January 20. Funds support the ministry of presence and Eucharist to those who are homebound or isolated in hospitals and other institutions. Mail gift cards to 5507 104th Ave NE, Kirkland WA 98033. Information, info@cabriniministry.org.

MUFFIN MAKERS NEEDED FOR SUNDAY COFFEE HOURS We are in immediate need of volunteers to help make muffins on the First and Fourth Sundays of each month from about 7am-10am. Information, Hunt Hoffman, hhoffman@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4235.

PREPARES MINISTRY NEEDS VOLUNTEERS The cathedral's new Pregnancy and Parenting Support Ministry, PREPARES, offers unconditional, nurturing care to families from pregnancy through a child's fifth birthday. PREPARES recognizes that parents need love and ongoing community support in order to choose life in difficult circumstances. St. James Cathedral is the first parish to launch PREPARES in central Seattle. We are forming teams of volunteers to work with a parent or family over the long haul. The model is similar to our existing AIDS Care Teams. Although PREPARES is brand new, we already have a waiting list of pregnant mothers, single parents, and young families who have asked for help. PREPARES is the ideal ministry for people who want to live out their commitment to social and economic justice and their belief in the dignity of every human life. Please consider stepping forward. Information, Suzanne Lee slee@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-654-4640.

BABYSITTERS NEEDED St. James Cathedral offers babysitting for children ages 1-4 during the 10am and 12 Noon Sunday Masses, during baptism preparation classes, and for special events. Two paid babysitters, who are over the age of 18 and have gone through Safe Environment Training, are on duty at all times. We currently have openings for additional staff. If you like working with children and want to provide a valuable service to the young families of our parish, please apply. Information, Suzanne Lee slee@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-654-4640.

Welcome Back

A CATHEDRAL PROGRAM FOR NON-PRACTICING CATHOLICS

Come back to the Lord with all your heart!

*God is gracious and compassionate,
slow to anger, rich in faithful love.* Joel 2

Have you drifted away from your Catholic faith? Are you disillusioned by what you hear about your Church? Do you desire a life filled with faith?

St. James Cathedral offers “Welcome Back,” a nine-week parish program for Catholics out of touch with a Church that once may have been home. It’s a safe place to ask questions, learn about changes in the Church, and begin to experience a small community of faith. If you desire, we’ll help you return to the sacraments, and to becoming an active part of the faith community.

The fall program begins Monday, January 8, 2018, and continues Mondays through mid-March.
Sessions are held 7:00–9:00pm in Cathedral Place, 803 Terry Avenue.

For more information, without any obligation, contact Rosanne Michaels at 206-654-4658 or rmichaels@stjames-cathedral.org.

Juvenile Justice Committee

WHAT IS THE JUVENILE JUSTICE COMMITTEE?

The Juvenile Justice Committee of St. James Cathedral affirms the inherent dignity of court-involved youth and forges a parish-wide commitment to spiritual care, re-entry support, and restorative justice practices.

WHAT DOES THE JUVENILE JUSTICE COMMITTEE DO?

- We foster peace-making between victims, offenders and community members through restorative circles.
- We recruit volunteers to provide the ministry of presence, tutoring, etc. for youth in troubling situations and marshal the resources of our parish to help at-risk youth.
- We bring about reconciliation and restorative justice in our parish community and serve as a resource for other Cathedral ministries.

Victim, offender and community members sit in circle.

WHY DO WE NEED A JUVENILE JUSTICE COMMITTEE?

Pope Francis says that "the worst

Juvenile Justice Committee seeks to address this lack, and to provide a space where healing, restoration and reconciliation are possible in partnership with King County Prosecutors' Office. We are committed to accompanying youth offenders, victims, and their families in a peace-making process rooted in mutual respect, accountability and candid dialogue.

HOW CAN I HELP? Quarterly information sessions are a great way to learn more about our work and how you can help. To participate in the circles, a background check and 3-day training is required.

CONTACT Patrick Barredo, Director of Social Outreach & Advocacy, pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org, or Curtis Leighton, Director of Youth & Young Adult Ministry, cleighton@stjames-cathedral.org, for more information about how circles can bring healing into your relationships and your community.

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
1 An annual papal message for the World Day of Peace (Jan. 1) has been released every year since 1968. Read the 2018 message and use the accompanying resources , such as a two-page handout, to reflect on its important invitation to all Catholics and people of good will.	2 “Poverty” is not a catch-phrase—it is a serious reality many are living. Are you familiar with the facts about those living in poverty in the U.S.? Learn facts about poverty in the U.S. and make 2 commitments to address poverty this month.	3 Today’s readings remind us that we are all children of God. Solidarity invites us to remember that we are part of one global human family and share in each other’s joy and suffering. This recognition is a key component of working together to seek justice for all God’s children.	4 The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) has been working for 48 years to help end poverty by empowering low-income families and educating about the root causes of poverty. Read about the work of the United Workers Association and other groups that receive funding from CCHD.	5 “If someone who has worldly means sees a brother in need and refuses him compassion, how can the love of God remain in him?” (1 Jn. 3:17). How can you be in solidarity with your brother or sister in need? Read how Catholics at a New Orleans parish are reaching out to their brothers and sisters in Nicaragua.	6 Did you know that 1 in 5 children in the U.S. live below the poverty line? Want to help children learn about poverty? Share the Superhero of Justice activity or the Two Feet of Love in Action storybooks with teachers or religious educators at your school or parish.	13 Work is much more than simply earning a living; it is a way of using our gifts to participate in God’s creation. We are called to uphold the dignity and rights of workers i.e. just wages, humane conditions, and respectful treatment, etc. How can you help ensure workers' rights and dignity are respected?
7 Today is the first day of National Migration Week . There are many factors that have displaced more than 65 million people throughout the world; poverty and migration have very strong link. See the faces of migration and read their stories. What can you do to welcome our migrant brothers and sisters in your community?	8 Through Baptism we share in Christ’s prophetic mission as people of God “to bring glad tidings to the poor...proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free” (Lk 4:18). How can you live out your baptismal advocate for and with persons in poverty locally and globally?	9 Sr. Tracy Horan was the 2017 Cardinal Bernardin New Leadership Award recipient for her work with immigrant families through Indianapolis Congregation Action Network (ICAN) and Justice for Immigrants . What local or national organizations can you join to help end poverty in your community?	10 “It is impossible to talk about poverty, about abstract poverty. That does not exist! Poverty is the flesh of the poor Jesus in this hungry child, in the sick person, in these unjust social structures. Go, look over there at the flesh of Jesus.” - Pope Francis Watch the Poverty USA Tour and learn about the cycle of poverty.	11 Today is National Human Trafficking Awareness Day . There are many children , women and men being trafficked in the world today. Use film to learn about the systemic problems that lead to trafficking. Find out about your slavery footprint and learn about CRS ethical trade .	12 The first reading today invites us to reflect on the role of our civil leaders and their obligations to implement just policies for the common good . Learn about how you can promote the common good by visiting the USCCB's Action Center . Say a prayer to confront global poverty .

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
14 On this World Day of Migrants and Refugees , the Gospel invites us to welcome our neighbors who are feeling violence, persecution, or poverty. Visit ShareJourney.org and WeAreSaltandLight.org for help cultivating a spirit of encounter and welcoming people of diverse backgrounds.	15 Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. fought tirelessly to eliminate injustice and segregation. He understood that eliminating poverty is not simply a hand-out; it is restoring the respect all persons deserve. Learn about—and join— Catholics' work to address the sin of racism and end racial injustice in our communities.	16 Our faith calls us to care for God's creation and help poor communities adapt to the effects of climate change. Read this story about the connection between poverty and climate change in this Ethiopian community.	17 We are called to help empower those who are vulnerable to seek change in their communities. A key element of breaking the cycle of poverty is empowering communities through subsidiarity , and supporting their work through solidarity . Read about subsidiarity, solidarity, and the common good .	18 Today marks the beginning of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity (Jan. 18-25). This year's theme, "Your Right Hand O Lord, Glorious in Power" is inspired by the Caribbean's experience of colonialism and calls Christians to work together to overcome contemporary challenges that are the legacy of social structures of sin.	19 The Two Feet of Love in Action are two unique but complementary ways to fight poverty. One foot is social justice—eliminating root causes of poverty, and the second is charitable works—responding to immediate needs. Search for a local organization you can join and learn about the current policies affecting persons in poverty.	20 There are many ways to help raise awareness in our communities. One creative way is through the CCHD Creating on the Margins Contest . Learn about how you can get your local school and parish involved. Who can you invite to participate?
21 "If we truly wish to encounter Christ, we have to touch his body in the suffering bodies of the poor, as a response to the sacramental communion bestowed in the Eucharist" (Pope Francis). How does the Eucharist open my heart to my brothers and sisters in poverty?	22 Today is the Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children . Participate in this day through prayer or through special events offered by your diocese to observe the anniversary of Roe v. Wade .	23 We are called to both defend the rights of victims and to uphold the dignity of offenders through restorative justice practices . How can you show God's love and mercy to those in need of healing and hope?	24 Throughout history, God journeys with his people. In a very special way God is close to those who suffer and are marginalized . Watch this video and reflect: What priority do those who experience poverty have in your heart?	25 "Go into the whole world and proclaim the Gospel to every creature" (Mk 16:15). How does the Gospel require us to respond to poverty in our communities? What can you do to proclaim the good news of God's love today?	26 There are many who struggle to obtain basic means for survival such as food, housing, a job, and healthcare: "No one seems to really care whether you're eating or not."—Male, 35, Florida, household of four. Read more reflections on poverty in the U.S.	27 Read the story, Our Border Family: Hope at the Border . The El Paso and Juarez communities encounter each other, despite borders. What boundaries do you need to cross to meet your brothers and sisters who experience poverty?
28 "Each individual Christian and every community is called to be an instrument of God for the liberation and promotion of the poor" (Evangelii Gaudium no. 187). Pray for the grace to understand how God is calling you to be his instrument.	29 Many face barriers to breaking the cycle of poverty due to discrimination or racism . What stereotypes do you have that distort your vision of members of your local or global community?	30 When someone suffers from poverty, their basic rights to clean water, food, housing, employment, and vital healthcare are violated. With rights come the duty to protect them. Learn about our Rights and Responsibilities .	31 Keep the conversation about poverty going with your family, in your neighborhood and parish by receiving our newsletter Notes for Neighbors and other communications by the Department of Justice Peace and Human Development .	 For more info and tips on getting involved, visit PovertyUSA.org or PobrezaUSA.org. ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL PARISH

We are the cathedral for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle and its Archbishop, The Most Reverend J. Peter Sartain. We are also a parish church for a vibrant faith community with a long history that reaches back to Seattle's early days.

We are an inner-city parish with an outreach to many who live on the edge of poverty and loneliness. We are a diverse community that welcomes, accepts, and celebrates the differences we all bring. We exist in the heart of the city, yet sometimes our parishioners come from considerable distances to worship here.

St. James Cathedral is a crossroads where ideas and challenges both old and new are explored in the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Our cathedral is also the center for many cultural and ecumenical events which both reflect and help to shape the fabric of a vital metropolitan community.

Above all, St. James Cathedral is a community of prayer.
