which shall never be taken away from her.

(10:00 & Noon)

Tantum ergo

Fauré

So let us devoutly revere this great sacrament, and the old covenant may give way to the new rite.
May faith grant assistance to the deficiency of our senses.

Jubilant praise, glory, laud, honor, and benediction be to the Father and the Son.
Equal praise be to Him that proceeds from the two.

When you return to your seat after receiving holy communion, please kneel or be seated.
This is the norm for large assemblies in the Archdiocese of Seattle and we thank you for following our practice.

The third staff begins with "We seek the peace your love im - parts," and ends with "parts,". The fourth staff begins with "And stand re - joic - ing in your sight." and ends with "sight."

WELCOME, SUMMER VISITORS! St. James is proud to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week a drawing for a special Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence in our midst today. Last week, we had visitors from Lyon, France; Niceville, FL; Surrey, BC, and many other places! The winner of our drawing was from Mayville, WI.

FLOWERS IN THE CATHEDRAL According to a pious legend, lavender received its sweet scent when Mary washed the Christ Child's clothes and hung them to dry on a lavender bush. When the sun and wind had dried the clothes, they smelled sweet and clean. If you have been inspired to give thanks with flowers, please contact Peggy Behnken at 206-654-4650 or pbehnken@stjames-cathedral.org for more information.

NEW IN THE BOOKSTORE Beautiful statues of St. Francis for your garden or backyard—in stock for a limited time only! We also have plenty of great reading for the summertime, and a variety of books related to our patron, James, and the camino to his shrine at Santiago de Compostela.

CHORAL MUSIC NEXT SUNDAY At both the 10:00 and the 12:00 Noon masses on July 25th, the Cathedral Soloists and the full Cathedral Choir of St. James will celebrate the Jubilee feast of St. James with choral music in honor of our patron.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE ABOUT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH? You are invited to participate in the RCIA, a process of initiation into the Catholic community of faith. It is a process which encompasses the study of Scripture, Catholic teaching, and Christian values—the development and deepening of a life of prayer and action—all with the support and involvement of the parish community. A new inquiry session began Wednesday, July 14 at 7:00pm. Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514, hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org, or go to www.stjames-cathedral.org/RCIA.

SUMMER CHOIR AND YOU! You are needed in this year's St. James Summer Choir. Any one—every one—is welcome to join in this Cathedral tradition. You do not have to be a gifted singer, just someone who loves to join with others to support the congregation and to sing praises at one or all Sunday noon masses in August. Rehearsals are the Sundays of August at 11:15am in Cathedral Place, Choir Room. Information www.stjames-cathedral.org/music, 206-382-4874.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we remember in prayer the parishes of St. Ann in Seattle, Tacoma, and Forks; St. Mary Magdalene in Everett, and St. Bridget in Seattle.

The Pilgrim Way of St. James

THE MEDIEVAL CAMINO IN WORDS AND PICTURES—PART 2 OF 3

JULY, 2010

Blessed Pope Calixtus II

Blessed Pope Calixtus II was born around 1065 and died in 1124. He was a great advocate of pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostela, and the first guidebook about the Camino is attributed to him.

This year, 2010, is a Holy Year: that's because the Feast of St. James, July 25, falls on a Sunday this year (something that won't happen again until 2021!). St. James is our patron saint as well, and we prepare to celebrate our patronal feast later this month by learning more about the ancient Pilgrim Way of St. James in Spain, and making our own "pilgrimage" to pray with St. James. Today Blessed Pope Calixtus II, a great advocate of pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostela, tells his story. MEET MORE CAMINO CHARACTERS AT WWW.STJAMES-CATHEDRAL.ORG!

A Pilgrim Pope

My name is Guy de Vienne, but when I became Pope I took the name Calixtus II. I have always loved Saint James (called 'Santiago' in the Spanish language) and as Pope, I have done much to promote pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostela, where the relics of the saint are venerated. I believe it is important to go to these holy places, because they bring us closer to the saints who followed the Lord. As I have written in one of my books, "When the stories of the saints are told, the hearts of listeners are moved piously toward the sweetness and love of the heavenly realm."

No one who goes to Santiago de Compostela comes back the same. There, Saint James works many miracles for those who are devoted to him. Some of the miracles are astonishing, but most are quiet, even invisible. But they are real. I have collected many of them and written them down. But, if I had written down all the miracles that I had heard about him, strength and parchment would have run out and hand would have worn out before the stories had run out!

Here is one of the miracles: Back in the year 1108, a French man went on pilgrimage to Santiago to pray that he might have a child. When he got home again, his wife became pregnant and bore a son. They named him James, and when he turned 15, the whole family went on pilgrimage to Santiago to say thank you to the great apostle.

Another miracle is well attested. A bishop was on his way home from Jerusalem. He was sitting on the edge of the boat and singing his prayers aloud when suddenly a strong wave surged up and swept him, along with several others, into the sea. When they were floating away on the wave, they called in a loud voice to St. James, who was there for them immediately. Standing on the waves of Thetis with the soles of his feet still dry, he said to those in danger and calling on him, ‘Do not fear, my little children.’ When he reached home in safety, this venerable bishop of the Lord composed several songs in honor of Saint James. One of the songs went like this: “‘O help for all ages, O honor of the apostles, O bright light of the Galicians, O advocate of the pilgrims, James, lead us to the port of safety.’”

I met several people who had seen James, in visions, and I asked them what the Apostle looked like. One of them told me, “his face appeared decent, if you will, and elegant, and of such a type as none of them had occasion to see either before or after.” Another said, “Saint James appeared to me to be young with a handsome face, lean and of that moderate color that people call ‘brown.’”

I invite all people to go on pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostela, to give honor to the great apostle, Saint James! Because, as I said in a very long sermon on the Feast of St. James, “there is no one who can tell how many benefits the blessed apostle has bestowed on those who seek him with a sincere heart.

Many poor people have gone there who, with God’s grace, afterwards were made happy, many weak were made healthy, many dissenters agreeable, many perverse pious, many lustful chaste, many worldly later monks, many misers generous, many haughty gentle, many deceitful truthful, many dishonest just. Behold, the city of Compostela, through the support of Blessed James, has been made sacred for the faithful and a help for those coming to it.”

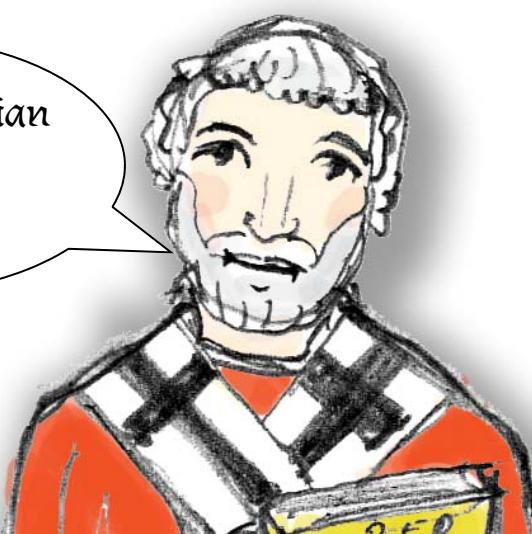

The Many faces of James

❶ This is one of the earliest representations of Pope Calixtus II, who was a great advocate of pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostela, and to whom the first book on the Camino—the “Codex Calixtinus”—is attributed. The Codex includes sermons, a pilgrim guide book, and music as well—both liturgical music and pilgrim songs. ❷ An image of the Apostle from the early Middle Ages, now housed in the museum of the Camino at Santiago de Compostela.

❸ This beautiful statue of Saint James, holding his staff, greets pilgrims as they come through the main doors of the great Cathedral of Santiago de Compostela. The carving is part of the magnificent Portico della Gloria at the west entrance of the Cathedral. ❹ and ❺ There are countless representations of the Apostle, but almost all depict James with the scallop shell, the wide-brimmed pilgrim hat, the staff, or the gourd—all symbols of St. James in iconography.

I urge all Christian folk to go on pilgrimage.

St. James Cathedral Schola Cantorum Choir Camp 2010

August 9-13 (9:00-4:00 pm, M-F) and Sunday, August 15 (9:00 am-12:00 noon)

Led by the region's finest Catholic music educators, this week-long camp prepares young singers grades 4-8 (treble voices) for the many Cathedral liturgies at which they will sing during the school year. The camp provides excellent training in liturgical music. Students learn how to sing, and develop their skills in music fundamentals, including rhythm and pitch.

Priority enrollment is given to parishioners of St. James Cathedral, and currently-enrolled Youth Music Program students.

A brief audition is necessary for new students.

Spaces are limited and will fill quickly.

For information e-mail musicoffice@stjames-cathedral.org or call 206-382-4874.
