*Glory to God in the highest,
 We praise you, we bless you,
 we glorify you, we give you thanks
 Lord God, heavenly King,
 Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
 you take away the sins of the world,
 you take away the sins of the world,
 You are seated at the right hand
 of the Father,
 For you alone are the Holy One,
 you alone are the Lord,
 with the Holy Spirit,*

and on earth peace to peo- ple of good will.
 we a- dore you,
 for your great glory.
 O God, almighty y Fa- ther.
 Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
 have mer- cy on us;
 re- ceive our prayer;
 have mer- cy on us.
 you alone are the Most High Je- sus Christ,
 in the glory of God the Father, A - - - men.

DISMISSAL OF THE CATECHUMENS AND CANDIDATES (10:00am)

The Lord is my light and salvation

Berthier

The Lord is my light, my light and sal-va-tion: in God I trust, in God I trust. The

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;

through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All BOW

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All STAND UPRIGHT

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,

and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

WELCOME, VISITORS! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. For more information about the parish, to register, or to ask a question, visit our Sunday Help Desk at Coffee Hour. A Cathedral staff person will be on hand to assist you. Be sure to stop by the Cathedral Bookstore after Mass for a wide selection of Cathedral souvenirs as well as Catholic books and gifts.

FOR YOUR SAFETY At each of the weekend Masses a Seattle police officer or uniformed security guard is present on the Cathedral campus.

YOUTH NIGHT TONIGHT Join us in the Pastoral Outreach Center from 6:30 to 8:30pm this Sunday evening for a chance to put your faith into action! Youth in grades 8-12 are welcome. Information, Curtis Leighton, cleighton@stjames-cathedral.org.

CHILDREN'S FAITH FORMATION registration still open. It's not too late to enroll your child in any of our classes: Sacramental Preparation, Faith Mentors, or Preschool through High School classes. All classes meet from 11:00am to 11:45am most Sundays through mid-June. Information, Brenda Bellamy, bbellamy@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-274-3108.

WANT TO BE A BETTER CATHOLIC? Don't miss the 2019 Cornerstone Catholic Conference: “United for Life and Justice,” taking place next Friday and Saturday, October 18-19, at the Tacoma Convention Center. The 2019 Cornerstone Conference will feature three great keynote speakers: Bishop Frank Caggiano, Sr. Miriam James Heidland, SOLT, and Sr. Norma Pimentel, MJ. There will also be six practical workshops on mental illness, essential life principles, racism, family prayer, the environment, and the PREPARES ministry. Register today! www.WACatholics.org/Cornerstone or 206-301-0556. Scholarships available.

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we pray for the parishes of Our Lady of Fatima in Seattle, and St. Edward in Seattle and Shelton, and for the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary.

RED MASS On Thursday, October 17 at 4:30pm, Archbishop Etienne will celebrate the traditional Mass of the Holy Spirit or “Red Mass” with lawyers, lawmakers, judges, and anyone in the legal professions. All are welcome. Please note that there will be no 5:30pm Mass on Thursday because of the 4:30pm Red Mass.

ARE YOU RAISING A 4 YEAR-OLD? Come learn about preparation for First Communion – a process that typically begins when a child is 5 years-old. Next Sunday, October 20, at 11:05am on the 2nd floor of O’Dea High School. Information, Brenda Bellamy, bbellamy@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-274-3108.

CELEBRATION OF ALL OUR SAINTS On Saturday, October 26, all are welcome to the second annual multicultural celebration of all the saints. Archbishop Etienne will preside at this Mass which brings together twenty different multicultural communities from around the Archdiocese, along with their beloved patron saints. Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament begins at 10:00am; Mass follows at 11:00am on October 26.

REMEMBERING OUR BELOVED DEAD You are invited to write the names of deceased loved ones in the Book of Remembrance which has been placed near the Shrine of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This book will be carried in procession at the solemn Requiem Mass of All Souls on Friday, November 1 at 7:30pm.

FIND OUT MORE ABOUT BECOMING CATHOLIC Are you, a family member, or a friend interested in learning more about the Catholic Church? Come and See! You’re invited to a no-strings-attached gathering to ask questions and find out more on Wednesday, November 6, at 7:00pm in the Fireside Room (lower level of the Pastoral Outreach Center at 907 Columbia Street). Please use the courtyard entrance to access the Fireside Room. All are welcome, no RSVP needed.

A WEEKLY TIP ON CARING FOR OUR COMMON HOME Since 2009, Trees for Neighborhoods has helped Seattle residents plant over 9,300 FREE trees in their yards and along the street. Demand is high, but there may still be trees available for pick up on October 27. If interested, go to <http://www.seattle.gov/trees/treesforneighborhoods.htm>. Information, Patrick Barredo, 206-382-4515 or pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL THANKS YOU A young musician was in a terrible vehicle accident that caused serious physical injuries and mental problems, including chronic memory loss and confusion. His injuries made it impossible for him to work for at least nine months. Overly optimistic that his attorney could “quickly” negotiate settlements with insurance companies representing the other driver and a medical provider who may have committed malpractice in treating him, he fell behind on rent. He called the SVdP Helpline (206-767-6449) only after his landlord threatened eviction. Your support allowed us to give just enough help to avoid eviction until his settlement money could arrive – thank you! Information, Bob Clifford, 206-718-4158 or bobclifford53@gmail.com

OCTOBER IS RESPECT LIFE MONTH “Our defense of the innocent unborn... needs to be clear, firm and passionate, for at stake is the dignity of a human life, which is always sacred and demands love for each person, regardless of his or her stage of development. Equally sacred, however, are the lives of the poor, those already born, the destitute, the abandoned and the underprivileged, the vulnerable infirm and elderly exposed to covert euthanasia, the victims of human trafficking, new forms of slavery, and every form of rejection.” (Pope Francis, Gaudete et Exsultate, 84)

EMPLOYMENT FACTORS INTO HOMELESSNESS Nearly one-quarter (24%) of respondents for the 2019 King County Count Us In report cited job loss as the primary cause of their homelessness. The overwhelming majority (79%) reported being unemployed or unable to work. 38% of respondents reported they were looking for work. 16% reported they were unable to work due to disability or retirement, and 7% reported they were unauthorized (this may include legal and undocumented status) to work. Information, Patrick Barredo, 206-382-4515 or pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org.

PLEASE SUPPORT THE WINTER SHELTER Four nights a week, homeless men are offered emergency shelter at the Cathedral. You can help them by donating much-needed supplies, including large cans of shaving cream and spray deodorant, razors, combs, and large tubes of toothpaste. Items can be brought to Coffee Hour, or dropped off or mailed to the Parish Office. Information, Patrick Barredo, 206-382-4515 or pbarredo@stjames-cathedral.org.

ARE YOU GOOD WITH NAMES AND FACES? Join the Children’s Faith Formation doorkeeper team. Check children in and out of classes and keep an eye on the hallways. Help out when you can 10:45am to Noon Sunday mornings. Information, Brenda Bellamy, bbellamy@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-274-3108.

MENTAL HEALTH AND WELLNESS MINISTRY Cathedral parishioner Terry Proctor leads a monthly support group for family members of adult children who live with severe and persistent mental illness. Terry is an empathetic group facilitator with personal experience of having a family member who lives with mental illness. The group meets once a month at St. James. Information, Terry Proctor, mindfulalternative@gmail.com.

ST. JOHN HENRY NEWMAN, PRAY FOR US

Today, Sunday, October 13, 2019, Pope Francis will canonize Blessed John Henry Newman—better known as “Cardinal Newman,” the great 19th-century writer, poet, theologian, Church leader, and convert to Catholicism.

THE PATH TO SAINTHOOD

John Henry Newman was born in 1801, the son of a London banker whose fortunes collapsed in the economic crisis that followed the Napoleonic wars. Newman was a brilliant student, who entered Trinity College, Oxford at the age of 16. He was ordained a priest of the Anglican Church in 1825, and served as a parish priest in Oxford, while continuing to write, read, and debate as one of the most prominent intellectuals of his time.

It was his systematic reading of the Fathers of the early Church, which he began in 1830, that led Newman, along with John Keble and many others, to try to reclaim the Catholic heritage of the Anglican Church in what came to be called the Oxford Movement. Eventually, these explorations would lead Newman to the Catholic Church. He resigned his parish in 1843, and on October 9, 1845 he was received into the Catholic Church.

Newman studied for the Catholic priesthood in Rome, and was ordained in May, 1847. Within a year, with the encouragement of Pope Pius IX, he established the Oratory in Birmingham—a community of priests who would serve in parishes, teach, and live in community.

In Birmingham, Newman produced some of his most important theological works, including The Idea of a University, as well as poetry like The Dream of Gerontius (set to music by Edward Elgar). His writings on conscience, faith and reason, the development of Christian doctrine, and education have had a tremendous influence. His writings anticipated the Second Vatican Council in many ways—in fact, Newman is sometimes called “the absent Council Father.”

Newman encountered harsh criticism for his decision to become Catholic, and he responded to his critics with his autobiography, Apologia Pro Vita Sua. Newman also encountered criticism from within the Church, and his writings on conscience and papal infallibility led some to question his orthodoxy and loyalty (his famous after-dinner toast was “to conscience first, and to the Pope afterwards”). But doubters were silenced when Pope Leo XIII made Newman a Cardinal in 1879.

Newman died on August 11, 1890. He was declared Venerable by Pope John Paul II in 1991 and was beatified on September 19, 2010 by Pope Benedict XVI. John Henry Newman is the first English person who has lived since the 17th century officially recognized as a saint by the Roman Catholic Church.

St. John Henry Newman’s feast day will be October 9: the anniversary of his reception into the Catholic Church.

PRAYER

The liturgical prayer for Newman's feast day echoes his own writings. His poem "Lead, Kindly Light" is probably his best-known work. The prayer also echoes the words Newman had chosen for his own tombstone, "out of shadows and images into the truth."

O God,
who bestowed on the priest
Blessed John Henry Newman
the grace to follow your kindly light and find peace in your Church;
graciously grant that,
through his intercession and example,
we may be led out of shadows and images
into the fullness of your truth.
Through Christ our Lord.

STRIVING FOR CLIMATE JUSTICE

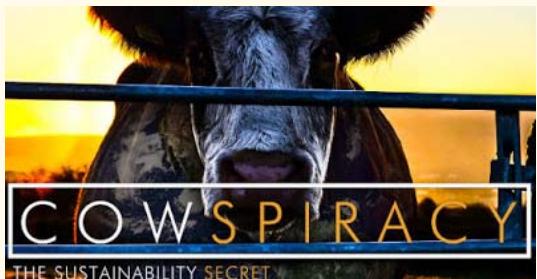

A Fall Faith & Ecology Film Series

PARIS TO PITTSBURGH Mon., Oct. 7, 6:30pm

Special guests Maddie Smith of Earth Ministry and Amanda Sorell of 350 Seattle

From coastal cities to America's heartland, Paris to Pittsburgh celebrates how Americans are demanding and developing real solutions in the face of climate change. And as the weather grows more deadly and destructive, they aren't waiting on Washington to act.

COWSPIRACY Mon., Oct. 14, 6:30pm

Special guest Julie Mihalisin, founder of The New Health Club

Filmmaker Kip Andersen uncovers the most destructive industry facing the planet. Shocking yet humorous, Cowspiracy reveals the absolutely devastating environmental impact large-scale factory farming has on our planet, and offers a path to global sustainability for a growing population.

THE RELUCTANT RADICAL Mon., Oct. 21, 6:30pm

Special guest Ken Ward, the "reluctant radical" in the film

Activist Ken Ward confronts his fears and puts himself in the direct path of the fossil fuel industry to combat climate change. Ken breaks the law as a last resort, to fulfill what he sees as his personal obligation to future generations.

St. James Cathedral Pastoral Outreach Center 907 Columbia St.

Doors open 6pm, with light refreshments. Films begin 6:30pm. Discussion to follow.
