

St. James Cathedral
The Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
November 13, 2016

"We, though many, are one body in Christ." Our giving makes possible so many of the good things that go on here at the Cathedral parish, week in and week out. Our giving allows us, in a very real way, to reach out to one another and to the poorest in our midst with love and compassion. Our giving is one way we build up the Body of Christ.

PRAYER OF POPE FRANCIS FOR THE YEAR OF MERCY

Father Ryan Lord Jesus Christ,

you have taught us to be merciful like the heavenly Father, and have told us that whoever sees you sees the Father.

ALL Show us your face and we will be saved.

Father Ryan Your loving gaze freed Zacchaeus and Matthew from being enslaved by money;

the adulteress and Magdalene from seeking happiness only in created things;

made Peter weep after his betrayal,

and assured Paradise to the repentant thief.

ALL Let us hear, as if addressed to each one of us,

the words that you spoke to the Samaritan woman: "If you knew the gift of God!"

Father Ryan You are the visible face of the invisible Father, of the God who manifests his power above all by forgiveness and mercy:

ALL let the Church be your visible face in the world, its Lord risen and glorified.

Father Ryan You willed that your ministers would also be clothed in weakness in order that they may feel compassion for those in ignorance and error: let everyone who approaches them feel sought after, loved, and forgiven by God.

ALL Send your Spirit and consecrate every one of us with its anointing, so that the grace of this Year of Mercy

may live on in your Church,

and that we, with renewed enthusiasm,

may bring good news to the poor,

proclaim liberty to captives and the oppressed, and restore sight to the blind.

Leader We ask this through the intercession of Mary, Mother of Mercy, you who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever.

ALL Amen.

DISMISSAL OF THE CATECHUMENS AND CANDIDATES (10:00)

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

[ALL BOW]

[ALL STAND UPRIGHT]

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son,

is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy,
catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

TELCOME! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. For more information about the parish, to register, or to ask a question, visit our Sunday Help Desk at Coffee Hour. A Cathedral staff person will be on hand to assist you.

FOR YOUR SAFETY It is important for you to know that at each of the weekend Masses a Seattle police officer or a private security guard is present on the Cathedral campus.

ON THE COVER The logo for the Year of Mercy summarizes what the Jubilee Year is all about. The motto Merciful Like the Father (Luke 6:36) invites all to follow the merciful example of the Father who does not judge or condemn but forgives and loves. The logo is the work of Jesuit Father Marko I. Rupnik. It represents an image important to the early Church: the Son of God carries the lost soul upon his shoulders. The Good Shepherd touches humanity with transforming love. While the Good Shepherd, in his great mercy, takes humanity upon himself, his eyes are merged with those of the human being: Christ sees with the eyes of Adam, and Adam with the eyes of Christ. We discover our own humanity in Christ, and learn to contemplate, in his gaze, the merciful love of the Father.

PARENTS' FAITH FORMATION, ALSO KNOWN AS PFF. takes place during the time your children are in their CFF classes. Join us for coffee, doughnuts, and conversation with other parents. This is a letter I sent this past week to some parishioners I haven't seen in a long time. It strikes me that you might be aware of people like that, too. Maybe they are in your family, or maybe they are friends, neighbors, or acquaintances. If so, I'd invite you to share the letter below with them. What better way to end this Year of Mercy?

Father Ryan

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

November 13, 2016

Dear Friends,

On November 20, the Jubilee Year of Mercy comes to an end. It has been a wonderful gift to the Church from Pope Francis, who never tires of speaking about the mercy of God. He reminds us that Mercy is God's name. And he reminds us, too, that God's arms are always open and that the embrace of God is wide beyond our imagining.

If you have drifted away from participating in Sunday Mass, I hope you will consider returning. I encourage you to seek out a parish home that nourishes you spiritually, whether here at St. James Cathedral or in your local neighborhood.

If there is something that the Church has done to hurt or scandalize you, I want to beg forgiveness in the name of the Church. And if there is anything that we as the parish community of St. James Cathedral can do to help you at this moment along your journey of life and faith, we very much want to do it.

You are part of the great family of the Church, you are important, and God always welcomes you with open arms. So does your Church!

May the amazingly good news of God's boundless mercy touch your heart and bring you joy and hope.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Father Ryan

I desire mercy

An exploration of the Biblical call to mercy Patty Bowman, presenter

Mondays, November 7, 14, 21, and 28 6:30pm-8:00pm, Holy Names Room Pastoral Outreach Center, 907 Columbia Street

"I desire mercy, not sacrifice, and knowledge of God rather than holocausts."

Hosea 6:6

As we draw near to the conclusion of the Year of Mercy, you are invited to join in an exploration of the theme of mercy as it appears in Scripture. Patty Bowman will help us to explore questions like: What are some of the ways in which mercy is described in Scripture? How is mercy consistent with the Biblical portrayal of justice? How does Scripture summon us to Pope Francis' "revolution of tenderness?"
