ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL The Baptism of the Lord January 11, 2009

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

Dear Friends,

We will remember December of 2008! It was the Advent of the Deep Freeze, the Christmas of the Great Snow. Never in my memory have we had weather so icy and cold that we had a nearly empty Cathedral on the last two Sundays of Advent. Christmas was better, but attendance was only about half of what it has been in past years. For those of you who were unable to be here, I can well imagine how disappointed you were. Many of you, I'm sure, watched the Midnight Mass from St. James on television but that's a poor substitute for being here in person. Another reminder of what an important part the community plays in our life and worship....

Any way you cut it, Seattle is a unique place. Only in Seattle would city officials take to the airwaves to assure people that the major arterials would be kept open for the benefit of those going to the football game on December 21 (making it clear that that was the only reason people should consider going out!). Only in Seattle! Despite that, a significant number of you did feel safe (and adventurous!) enough to make the trek to the Cathedral on that Sunday from all over the region. You came from Capitol Hill, Beacon Hill, and Rainier Valley; from Montlake and Mountlake Terrace, Magnolia and Madison Park; from North Bend, Newcastle, Preston, Issaquah, Bellevue, Squak Mountain, Federal Way, Shoreline, Sammamish, and Kenmore, and a whole lot of other places. I was impressed!

And I felt very badly for the hundreds and hundreds of you who couldn't possibly get here. Some of you let us know through calls and e-mails how much you missed being with the community during days when being together, and praying together, and celebrating together in the Cathedral are the high point of your year.

I would have to confess to you that, for me, those days were an important learning time. If you know me at all, you know that I kind of like being on top of things and that I expect things to go as planned! Well, God used those days to teach me a little about my limits: about resignation, acceptance, and patience, gently reminding me that I wasn't in charge (!) and that I ought, therefore, to relax a bit and let go. In a wonderful way, God turned those days from being the winter of my discontent into the winter of my discovery. It may not have been a lesson I was thrilled about getting, but I have no doubt it was one I needed.

I know you won't take offense if I gently remind those of you who were unable to be here on those Advent Sundays or on Christmas to send in your offering, or put it in the collection basket next Sunday. As you might expect, dramatically reduced attendance resulted in drastically reduced collections. The actual shortfall for those two Advent Sundays and Christmas (compared with last year) was $50,000! As you know, we depend on every dollar to meet our payroll and program expenses, as well as to maintain the Cathedral and other parish buildings.

Here's a closing thought for those of you who weren't here for Christmas. Go to our wonderful website (www.stjames-cathedral.org) and take a look at the beautiful albums of photographs of the Christmas celebrations. Why, you can even read the Christmas homily if you have the inclination. And the patience!

Blessings for the New Year for you and your families.

WINCHESTER NEW

- 1. When Jesus comes to be baptized, He leaves the hidden years behind, The years of safety and of peace, To bear the sins of humankind.
- 2. The Spirit of the Lord comes down, Anoints the Christ to suffering, To preach the word, to free the bound, And to the mourner, comfort bring.
- 3. He will not quench the dying flame, And what is bruised he will not break, But heal the wound injustice dealt, And out of death his triumph make.
- 4. Our everlasting Father, praise, With Christ, his well-beloved Son, Who with the Spirit reigns serene, Untroubled Trinity in One.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

HELP A SENIOR IN NEED Many people in our St. James community and beyond are in need of help with transportation, shopping, laundry, housework, and more. Age, illness, economics, and disabilities can all be barriers to accomplishing these routine daily tasks. By volunteering just a few hours a month, you can make a huge difference in someone's life by providing them peace of mind and the option to stay in their own home rather than going to an institutionalized setting. If you are interested in joining this rewarding ministry, please come to the Orientation to be held in the Pastoral Outreach Center on Tuesday, January 27 at 6:30 pm. Information Jennifer Ibach, 206-654-4640 or jibach@stjamescathedral.org.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR GREAT MUSIC FOR GREAT CATHEDRALS 2009 Great Music will be February 20 and 21 and we will need your support once again for this exciting St. James original production. Volunteers are needed for setup/strike, production, stage crew, vestments, hospitality, or office help. The time commitment for our projects ranges from a mere two hours to a very full two weeks and everything in between. Information, Ian Newhall 206-382-4874 or musicoffice@stjames-cathedral.org.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN LEARNING MORE ABOUT THE CATHOLIC CHURCH? You are invited to participate in the RCIA, a process of initiation into the Catholic community of faith. It is a process which encompasses the study of Scripture, Catholic teaching, and Christian values—the development and deepening of a life of prayer and action—all with the support and involvement of the parish community. A new inquiry session will begin January 14. Information, Helen Oesterle, 206-382-4514, hoesterle@stjames-cathedral.org.

WOULD YOU CONSIDER BEING A RCIA SPONSOR? We continue to have many new inquirers coming to participate in our Christian Initiation process to learn more about the Catholic Church (RCIA). We need St. James parishioners to be companions with our new inquirers to help welcome them to our community. All training and support will be provided and the time commitment is reasonable—a minimum of 2 sessions a month (Wednesday evenings). The rewards are many, including renewal and update of your faith and "kudos" in heaven. Information, Helen Oesterle at 206-382-4514.

THANK YOU FROM THE CATHEDRAL KITCHEN to all the hearty volunteers who came through the snow during the holiday season to help us out in the kitchen, particularly those from St. Joseph's Parish. We look forward to your continued love and support during 2009.

Call Congress: Urge Statements in Support of Cease-Fire

TAKE ACTION NOW! Call your Members of Congress today to urge their support for U.S. efforts to achieve an immediate, comprehensive cease-fire between Hamas and Israel.

WHY IS THIS ACTION IMPORTANT NOW? Members of Congress are being urged to issue one-sided statements with no mention of the urgent need for a comprehensive cease-fire that will end the human suffering on both sides. Legislation making a similar point is expected in both the House and the Senate.

It is important that your Representative and Senators hear from you now on the need for U.S. diplomatic leadership to help achieve an immediate cease-fire that ends the violence, addresses the humanitarian situation and leads to concrete steps toward a two-state peace agreement.

Several Members have made constructive statements, but many more have not. They need to hear from Catholics that expressing sympathy for only one side of the conflict is not compassionate or smart policy. What is needed now is strong U.S. leadership that pulls Israelis and Palestinians back from the brink and puts them on a path toward an agreement that creates a viable Palestinian state and enhance Israel's security.

TALKING POINTS: As an American Catholic, I deplore the tragic loss of life of civilians caught in the escalating violence in Gaza and southern Israel and care deeply about the welfare of both Israelis and Palestinians who are suffering and living in fear.

I ask that if and when the Senator/Representative makes a statement about the current crisis, he/she expresses support for strong U.S. diplomatic leadership, together with international partners, to achieve an immediate, comprehensive cease-fire that:

- ends the escalating violence between Israel and Hamas;
- addresses the humanitarian situation including an opening of the border crossings that provides relief for the people of Gaza and meets Israel's security needs; and
- leads to concrete steps toward a two-state peace agreement the best hope for long-term stability and security for Israel and the Palestinians.

WHAT DOES PEACE IN THE HOLY LAND HAVE TO DO WITH MY FAITH? The U.S. Bishops wrote in their 1983 pastoral letter, The Challenge of Peace: God's Promise and Our Response, "Peacemaking is not an optional commitment. It is a requirement of our faith. We are called to be peacemakers, not by some movement of the moment, but by our Lord Jesus."

Our Holy Father, Pope Benedict XVI, has called on the international community to help Israelis and Palestinians discard the "dead end" of violence and pursue instead "the path of dialogue and negotiations." Immediate, visible and decisive U.S. leadership is urgently needed.

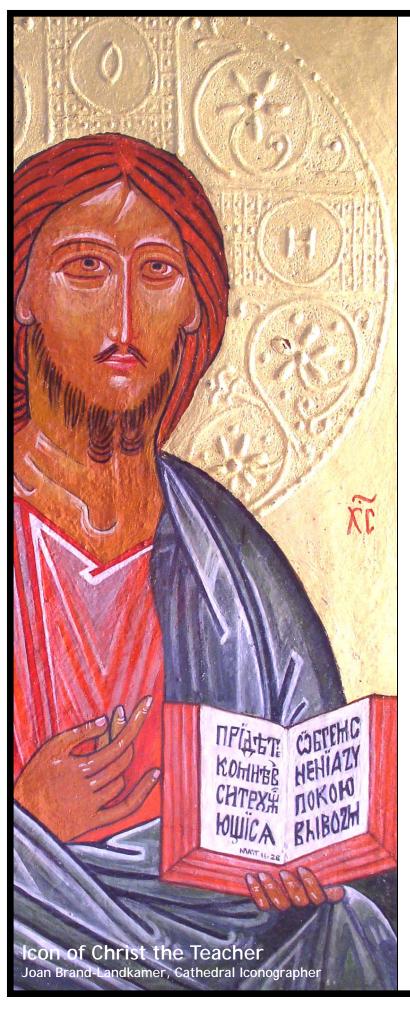

In a December 30 letter to Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice, Bishop Howard J. Hubbard of Albany, Chairman of the Committee on International Justice and Peace, USCCB, wrote: "At a time when the attention of Christians is drawn naturally to the birthplace of the Prince of Peace, it is tragic that innocent civilians are once again the victims of armed conflict and a humanitarian crisis. A ceasefire and humanitarian relief are indispensable initial steps on the road to a two-state solution—a secure Israel living in peace with a viable Palestinian state—with justice and peace for both peoples."

WHAT IS CRS DOING TO ADDRESS THE SITUATION ON THE GROUND? The continued insecurity of the environment makes the coordination of aid distribution incredibly difficult. CRS is working with local partners in Gaza including the Missionaries of Charity to prioritize needs and areas of intervention. On Saturday, January 3, before the airstrikes intensified, CRS coordinated delivery of a limited supply of bottled water, cooking gas, diapers and food to partners in Gaza.

Sunday, January 18, 2009 7:00-8:30pm

Cathedral Place Hall, St. James Cathedral 803 Terry Avenue, Seattle Suggested donation $10

This documentary goes to the heart of Merton's spiritual journey. Awardwinning producer Morgan Atkinson spent years researching Merton's work, as well as interviewing Merton friends, scholars and authorities on the spiritual life. The picture that emerges from Atkinson's study provides provocative insights into the interior landscape of one of the spiritual giants of modern times while capturing the haunting physical beauty of the geography that both nurtured and shaped Merton.

On Pilgrimage with Saint Paul His Journeys Through Turkey

Monday, January 26, 2009 7:00pm

Cathedral Place Hall 803 Terry Avenue, Seattle Suggested donation $10

Last spring Pope Benedict XVI dedicated a special jubilee year to the Apostle Paul, from June 28, 2008, to June 29, 2009, to mark the second millennium of his birth. Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew of Constantinople joined the pope in Rome for the opening liturgies, and both of them invited Christians to celebrate this jubilee, which includes the making of pilgrimages. Having made Pauline pilgrimages in Turkey on a number of occasions, FATHER JOHN ENDRES, SJ will share his experiences and help us follow in the footsteps of St. Paul.

FATHER JOHN ENDRES, S.J. teaches Old Testament studies at the Graduate Theological Union and the Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley. Raised in Tacoma, he is an Oregon Province Jesuit. He regularly teaches courses in the Psalms and in the Dead Sea Scrolls. His publications include: A Retreat with the Psalms: Resources for Personal and Communal Prayer (with Elizabeth Liebert, SNJM, Paulist Press, 2001), Biblical Interpretation in the Book of Jubilees (Catholic Biblical Association, 1987), and Temple, Monarchy and Word of God (Liturgical Press, 1987). A commentary on the Books of Chronicles is forthcoming (Liturgical Press). An active member of the Society of Biblical Literature, he has been president of the Catholic Biblical Association of America.
