Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

February 4, 2018

Dear Friends,

I am very happy to be able to announce to you that Joseph Adam has accepted the position of Director of Music and Cathedral Organist.

Joseph has served as Cathedral organist since 1993, as Interim Director of Music in 2015, and, for the past two years, as Associate Director of Music with Dr. Paul Thornock.

Because you get to witness his amazing musicianship every weekend, I hardly need to tell you what impressive credentials Joseph brings to his new position. His skills as an organist are widely acclaimed and rightly so. In 1991 he received First Prize at the St. Albans International Organ Competition, the most recent American to take top honors in this prestigious competition. In addition, he has performed widely in this country and beyond and, for the past nine seasons, has served as Resident Organist with the Seattle Symphony at Benaroya Hall.

But Joseph brings more than impressive credentials. He has been an important part of this Cathedral community for 25 years. He loves this place and he knows our community from the inside-out. He enjoys the respect of the members of the Cathedral choir and of the music community here in Seattle, as well as of the Cathedral staff. In every way, he will be able to hit the ground running as our new director of music.

I am more than grateful to Joseph for his willingness to assume this position that is such an important part of the prayer life and the artistic life of the Cathedral. I ask you to join me in praying for God's blessings for him as he begins his new role, and for God's blessings on our parish as we move into the future.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Father Ryan

CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, All BOW and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All STAND UPRIGHT

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

st vincent de paul thanks you we visited a middle-aged Navy veteran struggling to pay rent despite help from a local veterans organization. He suffers from addictions, loneliness and depression. His post-Navy prison record makes it hard to find work other than occasional day-labor jobs. His only steady income? $197 in monthly foodstamps. It was a long visit. He was very emotional. We helped with rent, but mainly he thanked us for taking time to listen to him talk about things that he said he never talks to anyone about. We felt privileged to do that, and we thank you for your support – you make caring visits like this possible. Information, Bob Clifford, 206-718-4158 or bobclifford53@gmail.com

Lenten Evenings of Reflection

MONDAY EVENINGS, 7-9PM
PASTORAL OUTREACH CENTER, ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL

February 19: Laurie Cassidy

BUILDING THE CITY OF GOD DESPITE INTERNALIZED OPPRESSION

Frightening current events give an urgency to building the City of God! For Jesus the Kingdom of God is not the result of our strategic planning, building or accomplishment. We will explore how American cultural norms can reduce discipleship into a "spiritual way" of accomplishing more and being more productive on behalf of building the Kingdom of God.

Laurie Cassidy's most recent book is The Scandal of White Complicity in U.S. Hyper-Incarceration: A Non-Violent Spirituality of White Resistance. Her teaching and research explore how Christian mysticism can be a resource for personal and social transformation.

February 26: Melissa Weiksnar

PRAYING ABOUT ADDICTION WITH THE STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Rare is the person who has not been impacted by a loved one with addiction and needs our prayers. But how to pray for them? We will use the Stations of the Cross as a vehicle for praying for those suffering -- directly or indirectly -- from the epidemic disease of opioid addiction.

Melissa Weiksnar has been using her daughter's story to educate about how addiction can impact any family. She is the author of Heroin's Puppet -Amy (and her disease) and It's Not Gunna Be an Addiction. She most recently worked at the Center for Adolescent Substance Abuse Research at Boston Children's Hospital.

March 5:

Sr. Alexandra Kovats

CARING FOR ALL THAT

GOD HAS CREATED

In this prayshop (serving as both retreat and workshop),

Sr. Alexandra Kovats will explore Laudato Si', Pope Francis' encyclical on care for our common home.

If we are called to protect the lives of the poor and the vulnerable, how do we extend that care to our planet, as an integral part of our faith?

Alexandra Kovats, CSJP has served as adjunct professor at the School of Theology and Ministry at Seattle University since 1989. She travels extensively to facilitate retreats, and is executive director of GreenHearth Collective, a nonprofit that focuses on urban ecology and spirituality.

March 12:

TRANSFORMATION
SOLIDARITY

We are called to love

our neighbor. But, like the scholar, we may find ourselves wondering, "Who is my neighbor?" Through the CRS Rice Bowl, we encounter our global neighbors as our sisters and brothers, and are transformed by their lives.

As Relationship Manager for Catholic Relief Services (CRS), Jesús Huerta is responsible for managing CRS' relationships with their partners in Oregon, Washington, Alaska, Montana and Idaho. Jesús takes the lead in the promotion of CRS Rice Bowl and with clergy outreach along the West Coast.

CATHOLIC THOUGHT AND CULTURE

ST. JAMES CATHEDRAL PARISH

We are the cathedral for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle and its Archbishop, The Most Reverend J. Peter Sartain. We are also a parish church for a vibrant faith community with a long history that reaches back to Seattle's early days.

We are an inner-city parish with an outreach to many who live on the edge of poverty and loneliness. We are a diverse community that welcomes, accepts, and celebrates the differences we all bring. We exist in the heart of the city, yet sometimes our parishioners come from considerable distances to worship here.

St. James Cathedral is a crossroads where ideas and challenges both old and new are explored in the light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Our cathedral is also the center for many cultural and ecumenical events which both reflect and help to shape the fabric of a vital metropolitan community.

Above all, St. James Cathedral is a community of prayer.
