Glory be to God in heaven, Songs of joy and peace we bring; Thankful hearts and voices raising, To creation's Lord we sing: Lord, we thank you, Lord, we bless you, Glory be to God our king. Lamb of God who on your shoulders Bore the load of this world's sin; Only Son of God the Father, You have brought us peace within: Lord, have mercy, Christ, have mercy, Now your glorious reign begin. You, O Son of God, are holy,
You we praise with one accord;
None in heav'n or earth is like you,
Only you are Christ the Lord,
With the Father, and the Spirit,
Ever worshiped and adored. (Text by Edwin LeGrice)

ELCOME, SUMMER VISITORS! St. James is proud to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week a drawing for a special Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence in our midst today. Last week, we had visitors from Cranston, RI; Caledonia, ON; Redondo Beach, CA; and many other places! The winner of our drawing was from Westminster, MD.

FLOWERS AT THE ALTAR are in loving memory of Vilem Sokol. Floral offerings are a wonderful way to remember a deceased loved one, celebrate an anniversary, or give thanks for a prayer that has been answered. If you have been inspired to give thanks with flowers, please contact Peggy Behnken at 206-654-4650 or pbehnken@stjamescathedral.org.

LOW GLUTEN HOSTS Have you been diagnosed with Celiac disease or gluten intolerance? The Cathedral is investigating the possibility of offering special hosts which have been approved by the Church, and shown to be safe for celiac sufferers by the Center for Celiac Research. We are trying to get a sense of how many would take advantage of these special hosts, if offered. Please e-mail Corinna Laughlin at claughlin@stjames-cathedral.org or phone 206-622-3559, extension 3996, if you would be interested in participating, and please indicate which Mass you usually attend.

This week we remember in prayer the parishes of St. Monica in Mercer Island, St. Augustine in Oak Harbor, and St. Mary of the Valley in Monroe.

CHILDREN'S FAITH FORMATION Registration will be on September 11 and 18 in Cathedral Hall after the 10 am and 12 noon Masses. Faith Formation sessions will begin on September 25. Consider taking part in JustFaith, an intensive program that explores Catholic Social Teaching, the church's "best kept secret." The program includes readings, videos, conversations about challenging topics, face-to-face encounters with the poor, and an investigation into the intersection of spirituality and Christian activism. We welcome our visitors

St. James Cathedral, Seattle August 28, 2011

T ELCOME, SUMMER VISITORS!

Y St. James is glad to welcome visitors from near and far throughout the summer months. Each week this summer, a page in the bulletin will offer some historic and artistic highlights of St. James Cathedral. This week, we highlight the Cathedral's striking west façade.

In addition, each week a drawing for a special Cathedral gift will be made from among all the visitor envelopes used. Please write your address on the visitor envelope provided in the pew and drop it with your offering into the collection basket. Thank you for adding to the power of our prayer by your presence today.

t. James is the Cathedral Church for the Catholic Archdiocese of Seattle. It is also a parish church for a large and vital community. Noted for its beautiful liturgies and its extensive outreach to the poor, the Cathedral also serves the city of Seattle as an important gathering place, a crossroads for learning, and a center for the arts.

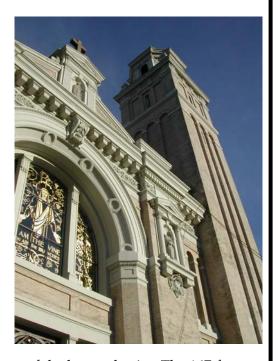

Built in 1907, St. James Cathedral is an impressive Italian Renaissance-style building whose twin towers soar to a height of 167 feet. St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, the first American citizen to be canonized, worshiped in the Cathedral in its early years. In 1994, a nationally acclaimed restoration and renovation completely renewed the beauty of this beloved Seattle landmark, transforming it into a dynamic space for the celebration of the Church's liturgy as well as for ecumenical, cultural, and civic events.

Artistic highlights of St. James include magnificent ceremonial bronze doors and tabernacle by German artist Ulrich Henn; an award-winning Shrine to the Blessed Virgin Mary; and a large collection of stained glass by renowned artists Charles Connick and Hans Gottfried von Stockhausen. The Cathedral Chapel is home to a remarkable 15th-century Renaissance altarpiece by Neri di Bicci.

St. James Cathedral is also a vibrant parish community of more than 2,400 households, coming from more than 180 ZIP codes around the entire Puget Sound region.

The CATHEDRAL'S WEST FAÇADE

As it stands facing the earthly city, St. James Cathedral offers a vision of the heavenly city. In 1907, when the Cathedral was dedicated, St. James was Seattle's skyline, visible from all parts of the city. Today, the Cathedral stands in the heart of an ever-growing urban center. But it still extends an invitation to the city to enter and experience a foretaste of the heavenly city. The 167-foot towers are a visible reminder of God's presence, and the six bells at the top of the south tower ring out a daily invitation to the entire community to come and see. As the inscription at the threshold of the Cathedral reminds us, this is DOMUS DEI, PORTA COELI - house of God, gate of heaven.

The black and gold window on the west facade, which dates from 1950, depicts Christ with words from St. John's Gospel: "I am the vine, you are the branches." The imagery is unusual in that Christ is flanked, not by the figures of saints or apostles, but by a fisherman and a lumberjack, representing the major industries of the Pacific Northwest in 1950. The window is a reminder that the Church must reach out with the love of Christ to the world of which it is a part.

In three niches on the west facade are limestone statues of saints. At the top is St. James "the Greater," patron of the Cathedral and of the Archdiocese of Seattle. Below are images of St. John Vianney (patron saint of parish priests - most of the priests of the Archdiocese of Seattle were ordained in the Cathedral) and of St. Frances Xavier Cabrini. Mother Cabrini, the first American citizen to be canonized, established schools, hospitals, and orphanages in Seattle, and prayed many times at St. James Cathedral.
