TELCOME, VISITORS! If you are a visitor to the Cathedral, we want you to know how welcome you are – whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or simply from another parish here in the Archdiocese. For more information about the parish, to register, or to ask a question, visit our Sunday Help Desk at Coffee Hour. A Cathedral staff person will be on hand to assist you. Be sure to stop by the Cathedral Bookstore after Mass for a wide selection of Cathedral souvenirs as well as Catholic books and gifts.

FOR YOUR SAFETY At each of the weekend Masses a Seattle police officer is present on the Cathedral campus.

ON THE COVER Our Lady of Grace (detail). Artist unknown, 1907. North transept, St. James Cathedral.

CHRISTMAS CROWDS Parishioners, please note that the Christmas Eve Masses tend to be very crowded, with almost as many people standing as sitting at the 5:30pm Vigil and 10:00pm Masses. Let's be as welcoming as possible to our guests and visitors during the coming holy days! If you prefer not to brave the crowds (and to keep your usual seat!), consider attending one of our Christmas Day Masses, especially the 8:00am, 10:00am or the 5:30pm on Tuesday, December 25.

ADVENT GIVING TREE THANKS Thank you to all who have supported this year's Giving Tree. This is the final weekend to turn in your Giving Tree gifts, to Coffee Hour or the Bookstore. Our partners at the Frederick Ozanam House, the King County Juvenile Detention Center, the Skagit Valley Youth Migrant Project, and PREPARES thank you for your generous giving spirit!

RACIAL JUSTICE DIALOGUES Today's scriptures remind us that God brings peace, "for now his greatness shall reach to the ends of the earth." How do we join in the work to bring peace and healing? Join us for this five-week series for parishioners who desire to more deeply explore questions at the intersection of faith and racial justice. Mondays, January 21-February 25. Registration required by January 15 at http:// www.stjames-cathedral.org/immigrant. Information, Christopher Koehler, ckoehler@stjames-cathedral.org or 206-382-4511.

DETENTION LOTTERY Join us for an immersive theatre experience set in a US immigration detention center. This is a dynamic and deeply moving play based on the direct experience of immigration attorneys from Seattle. Please note that this performance is not suitable for younger audiences. January 24 at 7:00 PM in Cathedral Hall. RSVP to Christopher Koehler, ckoehler@stjamescathedral.org or 206-382-4511

PARISH REMEMBRANCE Throughout the year, because we are the Cathedral Church, we remember in prayer at Mass and Vespers each of the parishes and missions of the Archdiocese of Seattle on a Sunday near their feast day. This week we pray for the parishes of St. Stephen the Martyr in Renton, Prince of Peace Mission in Belfair, and St. Mary in Anacortes and Marysville.

THE ST. JAMES WINTER SHELTER can welcome up to 266 individuals in one month. Our hospitality provides toiletries, many of which are used one-time only. That means that many toothbrushes and razors are needed for our male guests. These donations are gratefully accepted, and can be brought to Coffee Hour or the Parish Office, or ordered for delivery to the Cathedral.

COMING IN JANUARY: NAMI PEER-TO-PEER SUPPORT GROUP Tuesdays, January 15 – March 5, 6:00 – 8:30pm, Pastoral Outreach Center, Mother Cabrini Room. NAMI peer-to-peer is a free 8-week educational program for adults with mental illness who are looking to better understand their condition and journey toward recovery. Taught by a trained team of people who've been there, the program includes presentations, discussion, and interactive exercises. Everything is confidential and NAMI never recommends a specific medical therapy or treatment approach. "It made me feel I was not alone in coping with mental illness. It gave me hope that I could recover and that my life would not always be filled with chaos and it gave me positive role models to inspire me to strive for recuperation and success in life". RSVP to Aislin Percival at aislin@namiseattle.org or 206-783-9264.

st vincent de paul thanks you one of our members recently answered a phone call at the SVdP Helpline (206-767-6449) from a dad living in a nearby parish with his two pre-school boys. He cried as he struggled to ask, "Is there any way you can help me buy Christmas gifts for my sons?" The good news is his request was then handled by the local SVdP group in his area. Meanwhile, another local parish (St Jude in Redmond) gave us QFC and Target gift cards to share with a few St James families in need of Christmas help. Among those we visited was a man who lives only a few blocks from the Cathedral with his wife and four children, ages 1 to 12. When we handed this man Christmas gift cards, he and his wife responded with tears of gratitude, hugs and many cries of "God bless!" Thank you for helping us dry the tears of some men and cause others to cry with joy – your donations to SVdP make a difference in many of our neighbors' lives! Information, Bob Clifford at 206-718-4158 or bobclifford53@gmail.com.

ADVENT PRAYERS FOR REFUGEES AND IMMIGRANTS

Fourth Week of Advent

"Rise, take the child and his mother, flee to Egypt, and stay there until I tell you." (Matthew 2:13)

Good and gracious God, as we reflect upon the difficult journey that the Holy Family faced as refugees in Egypt, help us to remember the suffering of all migrant families. Protect those who travel in danger, and lead them to a place of safety and peace. Comfort those who are alone and afraid because their families have been torn apart by violence and injustice. Through the intercession of Mary our Mother, and St. Joseph the Worker, her spouse, may all migrants be reunited with their loved ones and find the meaningful work they seek. Open our hearts so that we may provide hospitality for all who come in search of refuge. Give us the courage to welcome every stranger as Christ in our midst. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

CALLED TO SERVE THE PERSECUTED CHURCH IN ASIA

A Catholic Lay Missionary's Tale of Faith and Perseverance

Thursday, January 10, 2019 | 7:00pm Pastoral Outreach Center, St. James Cathedral 907 Columbia St., Seattle

TRICIA BØLLE is a Catholic lay missionary who graduated from Stanford University, but ultimately left behind a promising career to follow Christ into the mission fields of the Far East. Her talk promises to be inspiring and to challenge us to reflect on how Christ is calling us to be bold witnesses of our faith.

TRICIA BØLLE is the founder of the St. Francis Xavier Lay Missionary Society, a lay missionary apostolate dedicated to forming, sending and supporting Catholic laity to share the life and love of Christ in Asia through a diverse ministry of evangelization, faith formation and social justice. The Society is dedicated to evangelizing and serving many parts of Asia, including empowering the lay leadership of the local Church in Asia.

She has been active in missions work in Asia for many years. Her call to serve as a lay missionary has a clarity that is constantly reaffirmed by the Holy Spirit, and she feels blessed that the Lord has chosen her for such a special and challenging vocation. She views with love many of those she serves with as true brothers and sisters in the mystical Body of Christ, and is always humbled by the beautiful ways that they bless her life.

She graduated in 2005 with an M.A. in East Asian Studies from Stanford University. Her thesis topic was on the 16th century missions to East Asia, focusing on the transformative missionary reforms of Alessandro Valignano, SJ during his ministry in Japan and as director of all Jesuit missions in Asia.

She has spoken extensively on mission, evangelization, and the vocation of the laity throughout North America, Asia, and Europe to both laity and clergy.

What is Alpha?

Alpha is a series of sessions exploring the Christian faith. Each talk looks at a different question around faith and is designed to create conversation. Alpha is run all around the globe, and everyone is welcome. All Alphas have three key things in common: food, a talk and good conversation.

"Alpha is a great way to connect with others in a big city who share in a faith tradition. Highly recommended to build more intentional prayer in your life." –Adam S.

"I trust that God is running the Alpha program, which brought about the change I was looking for in my life. The entire process—the videos with examples of others who changed their lives, the discussions, and so many other things—have increased my desire to know God and my commitment in new ways." —Gina L.

"I am so glad to have found a new way to grow in my Catholic faith with this great community." —
Patrick M.
